NASA finds strongest clue yet of potential ancient life on Mars

NASA's Mars rover Perseverance has uncovered rocks in a dry river channel that may hold potential signs of ancient microscopic life. The Perseverance rover uncovered colourful, speckled rocks in a dried Martian riverbed that contains iron phosphate and iron sulphide, chemical compounds that can be produced when microorganisms chomp down on organic matter.

Trump pushes India-US trade talks back on track

Says no difficulty in sealing deal; there's limitless potential: Modi

@ New Delhi

INDIA-US trade talks, which were stalled amid diplomatic friction arising out of Washington's punitive tariff action on New Delhi, are likely to resume soon with US President Donald Trump striking a conciliatory note towards India and Prime Minister Narendra Modi reciprocating positively.

Late on Tuesday, Trump announced that India and the US were trying to address trade barriers through negotiations. "I look forward to speaking with my very good friend, Prime Minister Modi, in the upcoming weeks. I feel certain that there will be no difficulty in coming to a successful conclusion for both of our great countries," he said.

In response, Modi stated: "India and the US are close friends and natural partners. I am confident that our trade negotiations will pave the way for unlocking the limitless potential of the India-US partnership. Our teams are working to conclude these discussions at the earliest. I am also looking forward to speaking with President Trump."

Government sources said the talks will resume soon, with ministries from tariff-affected sectors claiming that they have been assured by the commerce ministry that a favourable deal is on the horizon.

Confirming the development, Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal said that India is in talks with the US and other trade partners. "We are in active dialogue with the United States of America and with New Zealand. With Qatar, we will be finalising the terms of reference by the first week of October," Goyal said at an event in Delhi.

A soldier escorts escaped prisoners back to jail in Kathmandu on Wednesday | PTI

ARMED soldiers patrolled empty streets and guarded key buildings in Nepal's capital on Wednesday, enforcing a strict curfew amid uneasy calm following days of violent anti-corruption protests that forced Prime Minister K P Sharma Oli to resign.

Hopes are rising for a political resolution as youth protest leaders signal readiness for talks, even as nearly 700 air passengers, including Indian pilgrims, remain stranded at the Kathmandu airport that reopened in the evening.

The Nepal Army, now effectively in control of security, said the situation remained tense but "under watch", and extended a nationwide curfew until at least 6 am on Thursday.

The leaderless protest movement, primarily made up of students and young professionals, has proposed former Chief Justice Sushila Karki as interim prime minister.

Sushila Karki

At 73, Karki is seen as a rare figure of integrity in a political landscape dominated by patronage.

Despite the violence, signs of civic resolve were visible in Kathmandu.

Small groups of young people some wearing masks and carrying bin liners were seen cleaning streets outside charred buildings. P12

Enhance monthly maintenance to parents, K'taka HC tells Union Govt

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

IN a move beneficial to the elderly across the country, the Karnataka High Court has recommended the Centre to revisit Section 9 of the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, to enhance the ceiling on the monthly maintenance to be paid to them, considering the exponential inflation in the cost of living.

"Can maintenance so meagre achieve the objects of the Act? Can a citizen secure dignity, subsistence, and medical aid within the confines of Section 9? This requires pondering, so to say otherwise would be to reduce the existence of those senior citizens to 'as a mere animal existence'. This court cannot legislate; it cannot rewrite Section 9, yet it bears the responsibility to sensitise the Government of India that a provision which stood meaningful in 2007, now mocks its own benevolence in 2025," the HC observed. ELECTION FEVER SPREADS ACROSS ALL 5 NEW CORPNS

Polls likely in Jan-Feb, aspirants embark on people-connect forays

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

CORPORATION election fever has begun. Aspirants are becoming super active, trying to woo voters well ahead of the elections to the five corporations under the Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA), which are likely to be held in January or February.

Aspirants and their followers are putting up posters, visiting public places, and attending festivals like Ganesha Chaturthi and St. Mary's feast. Having grown tired of delays in holding elections, aspirants now believe the polls will happen on time. They are making all out efforts to get the party ticket.

Some of the aspirants and lost candidates in Assembly elections have already taken charge as Booth Level Agents and coordinating with Booth Level Officers and Anganwadi Teachers, to check voters' list to ensure that bogus and fictitious voters are identified and weeded out.

"These activities have begun over the last two months, and all this is a signal to prepare for elections to the local body. There will not be any delay, and elections for all five corporations under the GBA are likely to happen between January to March 2026," said S Anand, former corporator who lost Assembly election from CV Raman Nagar constituency. He said that the work on checking the voters' list is happening in all 224 booths of the assembly segment.

Raghu, an aspiring candidate from Vasanth Nagar in Shivajinagar constituency, said he has been working closely with ward officials in attending to issues related to civic works in the ward, and also coordinated with the MLA to resolve issues that were out of the purview of civic bodies.

CM tells lawmakers to lay groundwork for GBA polls

Bengaluru: Elections to the five corporations under the Greater Bengaluru Authority, allocation of funds to MLAs and the pothole menace were the major topics discussed in the meeting held by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah with his party legislators from Bengaluru on Wednesday. The legislators were first given a presentation by Urban Development Department Additional Chief Secretary Tushar Girinath, who explained the changes brought about with the transformation of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike into the Greater Bengaluru Authority. In the meeting at Vidhana Soudha, which lasted for around two hours, the legislators were shown how many wards were in each assembly constituency under the BBMP and how many would come up now in the GBA. Siddaramaiah and DCM D K Shivakumar told the legislators, including MLCs, to prepare the ground for the elections. In response to the legislators' complaints of potholes, the CM issued directions to officials to fill potholes on top priority and complete all ongoing road works at the earliest. ENS

Former corporator and defeated BJP candidate from Shanthinagar constituency, Shiva Kumar, said his ward, Shathala Nagar, will always be a BJP fort as ward sabhas have been held and daily rounds are being intensified. "A lot of workers approached for invites during Ganesha Chaturthi and also for St. Mary's feast, and to ensure the party name is not damaged, no rowdy-sheetes are allowed in sabhas," said Shiva Kumar.

Siddalingaiah, a former HAL corporator, expressed disappointment with the upcoming polls due to the division of the BBMP. "We have been waiting to hold a council for the last five years. The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) council ended on September 10, 2020, and today (Wednesday) is the fifth year without an elected body but nothing has happened. On top of it, now the corporation is divided into smaller units. My corporation limit is East Bengaluru and limited only to KR Puram and Mahadevapura assemblies, and there is not much pride," he said adding he has been preparing for the election for the last five years and reaching out to voters during all the festivals.

Tunnel Rd hearing: NGT sends notice to govt

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE National Green Tribunal started hearings on Bengaluru's most talked about Twin Tunnel Road project.

At the first hearing on Wednesday, the NGT ruled that notices be served to the Karnataka government, BBMP (now Greater Bengaluru Authority), Environmental Impact Assessment Authority (SEIAA), B-SMILE, Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change, and the project consultants.

The petition was filed by Bengaluru Praja Vedike and others two weeks ago, to draw attention to flaws in the tunnel road project. The NGT posted the next hearing to November 3.

The petitioners submitted to the NGT that in May 2024, the state government had hastily announced the Twin Tunnel Road project in the budget, without any credible technical assessment or support in the Comprehensive Mobility Plan 2020. They said the proposal is politically driven and despite two failed expressions of interest, was later retrofitted into a feasibility study through procedural manoeuvring.

The petitioners also submitted that on May 22, 2025, the cabinet approved the construction of a 16.74km twin-tube tunnel from Hebbal to Silk Board, at an estimated cost of Rs 19,000 crore, under the Build-Operate-Transfer model. A Special Purpose Vehicle called Bangalore Smart Infrastructure Ltd. (B-SMILE) was created and Rodic Consultants prepared the Detailed Project Report (DPR) in three months..

"The DPR is riddled with factual errors, incomplete annexures and omissions of essential studies such as site-specific geological surveys, hydrological and flood-risk mapping, biodiversity assessment and tree enumeration. Traffic modelling excludes major vehicle categories, underestimates emissions and still admits that key junctions will remain congested," the petitioners stated.

Further, the alignment passes through ecologically sensitive and legally protected areas, including the Peninsular Gneiss at Lal Bagh, Hebbal Valley's storm water corridor and the critically polluted Peenya Industrial Area. These zones face high risk of groundwater depletion, soil instability and aggravated flooding, the petition read.

The petitioners also cited reports by Indian Institute of Science that the project will cause a shift from public to private transport and increase emissions, and that the Directorate of Urban Land Transport had confirmed that the project contradicted Bengaluru's approved mobility and climate policies.

The agencies had bypassed the mandatory Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA), ignored public consultation and relied on a technicality that tunnels are not explicitly listed under the EIA notification 2006, though the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways had recently mandated that all tunnel road projects must obtain environmental clearance, they pointed out.

"The project's redundancy underscores the proposed Metro corridor along the same alignment which offers more sustainable, easily accessible, inclusive and environmental alternative," the petition stated.

Railway Cantt land gets biodiversity heritage tag

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE state government on Wednesday designated the 8.61-acre railway cantonment land in Vasanth Nagar as a biodiversity heritage site.

The decision was taken following a meeting between Forest Minister Eshwar Khandre and officials of the Karnataka Biodiversity Board on protecting 371 ancient trees opposite the cantonment railway station. The trees were proposed to be axed by the Railways for the construction of three multi-storey commercial spaces, leading to protests by residents and activists.

The heritage tag, under Section 37 of the Biological Diversity Act 2002, will ensure long-term protection and conservation of the green space in an urban sprawl. The land is located on Survey numbers 1047 and 1028 in Bengaluru North taluk.

The Karnataka Biodiversity Board had issued a notification recently seeking public opinion, suggestions and feedback on this.

Civic admin to notify traffic dept of unclaimed vehicles

TAKING note of the inconvenience caused by unclaimed vehicles, Bengaluru Central City Commissioner Rajendra Cholan instructed officials to identify unclaimed vehicles and provide a list to the traffic department and get them removed.

Speaking after inspecting areas in Shivajinagar assembly constituency on Wednesday he said that the unclaimed and abandoned vehicles that have been parked on the side of the road for a long time are hindering traffic flow.

Cholan also inspected Auto Tipper Mustering Point in Vasanth Nagar and spoke to the drivers and staff of 22 autos and five compactors and instructed them to use the equipment safely. The commissioner asked officials to create awareness among hotels and commercial establishments owners and staff to keep their premises clean so that there is no garbage or debris.

"If they do not comply, fines should be imposed. Issue notices to all commercial establishments to keep their premises clean," said Cholan. As placing building debris or construction materials on sidewalk, drains and footpaths in both ward roads as well as main roads is an issue across the corporation, he said building contractors should not place building debris or construction materials on the sidewalk and directed the municipal authorities to fine those who damage municipal property by placing them on the sidewalk.

He said that cars were parked on Miller Tank Bund Road and Jasma Devi Bhavan Road and instructed to identify the list of such roads where parking was done for a long time and take steps to implement the pay-and-park system using the parking policy.

Sunil Kumar: Prevent waterlogging near Hebbal

North Corporation Commissioner Pommala Sunil Kumar instructed officials of the National Highways Authority of India to carry out work to prevent waterlogging near the down ramp of the Hebbal flyover airport route.

He directed that gratings should be installed so that the rainwater falling on the road can flow smoothly into the shoulder drains.

11TH September: Mercury has now changed its position and many astrologers I know will be moaning about missed appointments. I see it very differently. I think that the coming period will be fantastic for everyone who wants a second shot at an opportunity which was seriously fluffed first time round.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You are not one to play the martyr. However, you may be wise to consider a tactical withdrawal, if only to regroup your forces and avoid being blamed for mistakes which are frankly nothing to do with you. Keep an eye out for lingering legal problems, though.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You never did play all your trump cards in one go. Therefore, you are really in quite a strong position. At work, you can afford to be perfectly charming and considerate even to your rivals. Partners will be impressed if you set your sights on the long-term picture and put short-term distractions in their proper place.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
It's the Moon which is important today; indicating that other people have the emotional advantage. You may therefore have to grin and bear it as they play their little games, extracting what pleasure they can from winding you up. The golden rule is: never take the bait!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You may not feel like sharing whatever good fortune comes your way, but you must realise that other people do deserve some of the rewards. Complicated emotional situations are not entirely their fault. You may bear some responsibility, so a little humility may be in order.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
The expensive phase you have been going through is due to continue for about another eight days. Therefore, you must expect a large bill or some other demand for money to arrive at almost any time. How you deal with it is up to you - and your good judgment.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Battle may be commenced at home, but possibly not until tomorrow. You have a little time left to work out a strategy but also to complete any tasks or obligations which you have left undone. The real question, though, is a psychological one: why are you ready for a clash with authority?

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Your persuasive powers are strong, yet your grasp of the facts is slight. In your confusion you are nothing if not typical, for nobody has any real idea as to what is actually happening. Any light you can shed on the situation will be most welcome, even if partners don't fully get your drift!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
As Jupiter gradually moves closer to a vital alignment with a number of other planets over the coming time, your chances of a breakthrough can only improve. However, when it comes, the change may be one of inner attitude rather than outer circumstances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The Moon, that most emotional and changeable of planets, is still at your beck and call. This means that you are in control at home and that all family arrangements may be shaped to your will. Can you really do it? I honestly feel that you can.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Your best policy today may be to keep certain matters to yourself. There is nothing to be gained from talking to other people about your hopes, wishes or problems that can't be sorted out in private. What you have to do is wait until the time is right to speak your heart.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Do make an effort to mix socially and get out and about as much as possible. Hopefully, people you meet now will go some way to improving your morale and restoring your battered confidence. There could be a bit of an emotional confrontation in the air, but at least the truth could come out at last.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Other people will be expecting you to perform some sort of maternal, caring role. However, it is you, not they, who is searching for emotional security, so please try to be clear about your motives. You have to be absolutely sure of your next step.

Nimhans observes Suicide Prevention Day

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

NIMHANS marked World Suicide Prevention Day and the first anniversary of its NIMHANS Suicide Prevention, Research, Implementation Training and Engagement Centre (N-SPRITE) on Wednesday. They shared that Karnataka has a high suicide rate of 20.2 per cent, compared to the national average of 12.4 per cent, recording 13,606 suicides in 2022, with Bengaluru ranking third among India's megacities in the number of suicides.

One of N-SPRITE's key projects, Urban Self-Harm Study (USHAS), has been running in 16 public hospitals across 11 districts of Karnataka since 2022. The project has helped reduce the rate of repeated self-harm to 1.19 per cent and deaths to 0.2 per cent. NIMHANS Director Dr Pratima Murthy highlighted that more than 10 per cent of people who attempt self-harm could die by suicide if they do not get support.

Under USHAS, self-harm registries are maintained in hospital emergency departments to record details of people who attempt self-harm or suicide. So far, 20,861 people have been included in the registries, and 16,264 of them, about 78 per cent, have received interventions. The project also has a youth-focused component called Youth Mental Health and Self-Harm Study aimed at preventing suicide among young people. It provides screening, brief interventions, and follow-up support to help reduce future self-harm or suicide attempts.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

FIVE second-year PU students, along with a private school principal and a hostel warden, have been booked under the the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO)after a Class 10 student alleged ragging, assault and sexual harassment at a private school hostel in Bannerghatta police station limits on the outskirts of Bengaluru.

Police said the victim, who had recently been admitted to the hostel, was allegedly ragged for four days by a group of five second PU students staying in the same hostel between August 3 and 6. He complained to the warden and the principal, who issued only a warning to the accused students.

Irked by this, the five students allegedly targeted the boy again, this time forcing him to dance naked, sexually harassing him and assaulting him with a cloth hanger.

The boy later informed his parents, who filed a complaint with the police on Monday.

The hostel warden was arrested on Wednesday for failing to prevent the ragging despite repeated complaints.

A case has been registered under the POCSO Act against the five students, the warden and the principal. Police said the students are being questioned reagrding the case and investigation is under way.

Man kills pregnant wife to hide affair, 3 held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

IN a shocking case of premeditated murder, the police have arrested a lawyer and his two accomplices for allegedly killing his six-month pregnant wife and staging it as an accident.

The incident took place in Ugar BK village of Chikkodi taluk on Sunday night.

The victim was identified as Chaitali Pradeep Kiranagi (23).

Her husband, Pradeep Annasab Kiranagi, and accomplices Saddam Akbar Imandar and Rajan Ganapathi Kamble, were arrested. Two other accused are absconding.

Superintendent of Police Dr Bhimashankar Guled said: "The case came to light when the accused called Kagwad Police Station, claiming his wife had met with an accident and that he was taking her to hospital. However, when the police checked the location and vehicle, no signs of an accident were found, raising suspicion. Further, hospitals in Kagwad confirmed that no such patient was admitted."

Later, Pradeep informed the police that he was at Miraj Hospital in Maharashtra and repeatedly requested the completion of legal formalities for his wife's cremation. However, as per primary investigation, the police suspected that it might be a murder conspiracy and not an accident.

The accused has confessed to hitting Chaitali fatally inside the car and fabricating the accident story.

The police said that Pradeep had attempted to kill his wife twice earlier but she had survived. Pradeep, who had married Chaitali two years ago, was having an extramarital affair. He feared that the relationship would be found out and he decided to eliminate her.

SIT revisits Banglegudda for inspection

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mangaluru

THE Special Investigation Team (SIT) probing the alleged Dharmasthala mass burial case revisited Banglegudda on Wednesday for a site inspection (mahazar).

According to SIT sources, the revisit was to further document and verify vital evidence, particularly in connection with the skeletal remains recovered from the site recently. The skeletal remains were reportedly discovered at the site identified by Vittal Gowda, a relative of Sowjanya. These remains have been sent for forensic analysis.

SP Simon CA and other officers went to the site along with Gowda, who is being questioned by SIT in connection with a skull that was earlier submitted by the witness-complainant.

Tension prevailed for a while after an argument broke out between a YouTuber and those gathered at the site. However, policemen brought the situation under control. Kerala-based YouTuber Manaf, who appeared before SIT for the third day, told reporters that he is cooperating with the investigation team.

"Truth will prevail, and it cannot be achieved by walking the path of lies. SIT is conducting a thorough probe, and I have been sharing everything I know," Manaf said.

Manaf maintained that he has no intention to protect any individual or group, but to support the truth-seeking process. "If any mistakes have been made, even by us, let them come out," he said.

Meanwhile, activist Jayanth T, who is being questioned by SIT, said that his three mobile phones have been seized. "I cannot comment further on the investigation," he added.

Jail warder held for smuggling drugs into Bengaluru prison

Despite the Supreme Court recently slamming jail authorities for giving preferential treatment to inmates in the actor Darshan case, and despite several initiatives by the Prison Department to curb illegal activities, a jail warder at Bengaluru Central Prison in Parappana Agrahara has been arrested for smuggling drugs into the facility.

The accused, Kalappa H Abachi, was caught with 100 grams of hashish oil worth Rs 1 lakh. He is alleged to have been supplying drugs to inmates.

Abachi, an ex-serviceman, had taken voluntary retirement from the Indian Army and joined the Prison Department under the ex-servicemen quota in 2018. He had earlier served as a warder at Dharwad Prison and was transferred to Bengaluru Central Prison three months ago.

According to Parappana Agrahara police, on Sunday night, Kalappa was on duty at the prison. During a security check at Checkpoint 2, officials found 100 grams of hashish oil wrapped in a plastic cover along with chewing tobacco products in his trousers. The contraband was seized, and a case was registered under the NDPS Act and Section 42 of the Karnataka Prisons Act. He was arrested on Monday after a complaint was filed.

Police said Kalappa is being questioned to determine for whom he was smuggling the drugs. Following his arrest, he has been suspended from service, prison sources said.

SC community protests over internal reservation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

HUNDREDS of protesters staged a massive demonstration, alleging injustice in internal reservations, at Freedom Park on Wednesday. The protestors overturned barricades, attempted to march towards Vidhana Soudha, and blocked major roads. During the protest, a woman allegedly tried to end her life by pouring diesel on herself, but was stopped by other protestors. The protestors gave the government a one-week deadline to decide on the internal reservation.

Members of various Scheduled Castes, under the aegis of the Banjara, Bhovi, Korama, and Koracha communities, staged the protest demanding a 5 per cent reservation. Protestors raised slogans against the government and burnt tyres, expressing their anger.

The situation turned tense after they overthrew barricades and blocked the road, demanding that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah or Social Welfare Minister H C Mahadevappa address their grievances at the spot. They alleged that they were not given proper representation in the reservation quota.

The protestors refused to meet Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy or other officials, insisting that they would only interact with the Chief Minister. Around 4 p m, they warned the police that they would march to Vidhana Soudha if the CM did not come down to meet them. The Upparpet police took three persons into preventive custody. Traffic between Anand Rao Circle in Majestic and K R Circle came to a complete standstill after protestors occupied the road.

Cyber Command Centre should be robust, iron-handed to handle cyber crime, says HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

OBSERVING that Cyber Command Centre (CCC) is not an option, but an imperative born of necessity, the Karnataka High Court on Wednesday said that mere establishment of a CCC would not be enough if it remains inert, and is implemented only on paper. The CCC must be robust, people-friendly, deft and iron-handed to handle cyber crimes, and also insulated from external intrusion, the court added.

Citing the government order dated April 9, 2025, the court said: "This order establishes the CCC, but mere establishment would not be enough with the growing menace of cyber crimes. This CCC should not be a mere edifice of bureaucracy, but a beacon heralding a new dawn in the fight against cyber crime. Giving it teeth would make the CCC emerge as a new-age antidote for new-age crimes. Therefore, it must be robustly fortified." Justice M Nagaprasanna made these observations after developments were placed on record by amicus curiae BN Jagadeesha for implementing directions issued by court in a case in April 2025, for establishment of a CCC to tackle cyber crimes and strengthen cybersecurity.

The court stated that officers on duty at CCC must serve without disruption of frequent transfers. It also directed the DGP of the unit to submit his report through amicus curiae on September 24, showing progress in investigation of cyber crimes or integration of all IT cases. It is their duty to ensure transparency, the court added.

Growing cases

According to amicus curiae Jagadeesha, in 2023, 15,543 cases involving the IT Act were reported in the CEN Police Station, and 6,710 in other police stations. But between 2023 and 2025, other police stations have 22,827 cases, and CEN Police station has 31,791 cases. The court said this would hamper investigation if they were not brought under one roof.

'Record conversations'

With cyber crime complaints reported on the 1930 helpline, it is necessary that the conversation be recorded as part of the police/ IT system, and if necessary, draw up a zero FIR against the perpetrators. The 1930 helpline should be integrated with the Police IT app and be a part of the CCC.

MADDUR TURNS SAFFRON AS THOUSANDS TAKE PART IN GANESHA PROCESSION

Vijayendra seeks judicial probe to investigate police lapses; Hindu sentiments hurt, says Ravi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mysuru

THOUSANDS of people, including Hindu activists and BJP workers, participated in a mega procession to immerse Ganesha idols in strife-torn Maddur town on Wednesday.

Sporting saffron shawls and flags, they chanted 'Jai Sri Ram' and raised slogans condemning Sunday's stone-throwing incident and police action. They also demanded that those who had pelted stones at processionists be arrested.

More than 2,000 police personnel were deployed across the town, although no prohibitory orders were imposed. IGP (Southern Range) MB Boralingaiah supervised the security arrangements.

The procession began at 11am from the premises of the tourists' bungalow. Security was tightened around the mosques along the procession route.

BJP leaders R Ashoka, BY Vijayendra, former DCM CN Ashwathnarayan and CT Ravi participated in the procession. Hindu activists burst crackers even as folk troupes performed during the procession. The procession passed through Market Circle, MC Road and Kolli Circle. Idols were immersed near Sri Hole Anjaneyaswamy temple and in Uppinakere.

Addressing the gathering, Vijayendra alleged that miscreants deliberately threw stones to disrupt the procession in the town on Sunday.

"Miscreants go to any extent to trouble Hindus. Ganja is sold openly in the town. Hindu women and children cannot walk freely in some localities here. Statements by district incharge minister Chaluvarayaswamy, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Bhadravathi MLA BK Sangameshwar led to unrest in the town. BJP is not doing politics, it is our duty to safeguard the interests of Hindu activists and organisations," he said. Accusing the Congress government of appeasing minorities, Vijayendra demanded that a judicial probe be ordered into police lapses. "Congress is doing communal politics. Misled by Congress leaders, Muslim youths indulged in violence. The government should have invoked the Goonda Act against those who threw stones at the procession from mosques. Instead, it filed FIRs against innocent Hindu activists," he alleged.

Siddaramaiah should be sent to Pakistan, says Ashoka

Slamming the State Government, Ashoka said, "It tried to defame Dharmasthala and Goddess Chamundeshwari. Now, it is protecting those who had attacked Ganesha devotees. Siddaramaiah should be sent to Pakistan for appeasing the Muslims. Today the government has banned music in front of mosques, tomorrow it will ban the Ganesha festival."

"Hindu sentiments have been hurt and Hindus will not tolerate henceforth," Ravi said.

Later, BJP leaders visited the houses of Ajay, Gangadhar, Shaktiraj and Sagar, who were injured in stone-throwing on Sunday.

BJP TRYING TO POLARISE MYSURU, SAYS KPCC SPOKESPERSON

MYSURU: Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) spokesperson M Lakshmana has accused BJP of attempting to polarise Mysuru district. He said the Mysuru police had denied permission to both Hindu Jagarana Vedike and Dalit Mahasabha to hold separate padayatras to Chamundi Hills over the controversy surrounding writer Banu Mushtaq inaugurating Dasara. "But in the name of Hindu Jagarana Vedike, the BJP tried to instigate communal riots near Chamundi Hills by mobilising over 5,000 goons from other districts. They were brought in buses from Kodagu, Chikkamagaluru, Mangaluru, Hassan, and Udupi. Most of them were stopped from reaching Sangolli Rayanna Circle, where they had planned to begin their padayatra," he said. On the Maddur stone-pelting incident, he said the BJP, which has no base in Mandya, was trying to gain a foothold through communal tensions.

BJP agitation is politically motivated: Min

CHIKKAMAGALURU: Agriculture Minister N Chaluvarayaswamy said the State government and Mandya district administration had condemned the stone-pelting incident during the Ganesha immersion procession in Maddur, and that Muslims from Channapatna who were responsible for the large-scale violence, were arrested.

He told reporters on Wednesday that no Hindus had been arrested, nor were FIRs registered against them. He said the ADGP has been camping at the spot for the past three days, and monitoring was being carried out by the IG and SP.

"Orders have been issued for stringent action. But despite this, BJP leaders staged a protest on Monday and observed a bandh in Maddur on Tuesday. Today, BJP state president BY Vijayendra and LoP R Ashoka are visiting Maddur. When the government has already acted against the mischief-mongers, holding such meetings is nothing but political motivation," he said.

He further alleged that according to information available, BJP workers were purchasing Ganesha idols from Bengaluru to 'artificially' increase their numbers in Maddur.

Kharge can become PM as Rahul will sacrifice post: AICC SC dept chief

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

ALL-India Congress Committee (AICC) Scheduled Castes department chairperson Rajendra Pal Gautam on Wednesday said that Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge can become the country's PM if I.N.D.I.A bloc gets a majority in the next General Election as LOP in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi—whose mission is to ensure social justice through power sharing—would sacrifice the top post.

"There is every possibility of Kharge becoming the PM, which is why we are strengthening the SC department. Rahul is a pure-hearted person, and like his family members who sacrificed (PM post), he too would sacrifice, as his mission is to provide social justice. Even in Karnataka, a Dalit would become the CM if the time comes," Gautam told TNIE on the sidelines of his department's office-bearers meeting, which he held at the KPCC office in Bengaluru.

Gautam urged the Union Government and the Congress-ruled states to implement reservation in education and employment in private sector. "After the BJP came to power, the Centre has outsourced Group-4 jobs and cut down 50% of Group 1, 2, and 3 jobs, of which 50% are outsourced, putting an end to job security. I have written to the CMs of all Congress-ruled states and will meet Karnataka CM Siddaramaiah in this regard," he said, adding that the UPA government in 2006 had brought in the 93rd amendment to the Constitution to enable the state governments to mandate reservation in private higher education institutions and inserted Clause 5 to Article 15 to make special provisions. "In 2014, even as the Supreme Court pronounced that it was legal, the Modi government did not implement it," he said.

On allegations that the Siddaramaiah government was diverting SCP/TSP grants, he said that his department will keep a close watch on it. Meanwhile, he defended the implementation of the internal quota in Karnataka. "The government did its best, but sharing quota data is a daunting task, and if there was injustice to the nomadic SCs, there could be some modifications in the future," he said. Gautam, a two-time AAP MLA from Delhi, switched to Congress recently.

Committed to increasing Almatti dam height: Siddu

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

REITERATING the state government's commitment to increase the height of the Almatti dam from 518 to 524 metres, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on Wednesday said that it is also committed to providing fair and just compensation to farmers who lose their land to the Upper Krishna Project Phase-3.

"Appropriate rehabilitation package will be provided to land losers. A decision in this regard will be taken at the next cabinet meeting," he said, presiding over a meeting on the implementation of Phase-3.

As per the verdict of the Krishna Water Disputes Tribunal-2, the state will get 130 tmcft of water for this project, which will help irrigate 5.94 lakh hectares of land. By raising the level of the dam, an additional 100 tmcft of water could be stored, Siddaramaiah said.

In all, 1,33,867 acres of land is required for the implementation of the project. So far, 29,566 acres of land has been acquired. The process to acquire 59,354 acres of land is yet to be initiated.

He said the project cost, which was initially estimated at Rs. 51,148 crore, has been revised to Rs 87,818 crore of which, Rs 17,627 crore was initially estimated for land acquisition. The revised cost is Rs 40,557.09 crore.

The revised estimation for nine sub-project civil works is Rs 25,122.53 crore, he further said.

Deputy Chief Minister and Water Resources Minister DK Shivakumar, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil, and Excise Minister RB Thimmapur were present.

Special court extends police custody of Congress MLA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE special court extended the police custody of Congress MLA Satish Krishna Sail by two days after his custody ended on Wednesday.

He was arrested by the Directorate of Enforcement (ED) on Tuesday evening in connection with a money laundering case linked to the illegal export of iron ore from Belekeri Port.

He was produced before the special court trying cases against sitting and former MPs/MLAs after his one day police custody ended. The prosecution sought four days of police custody for further investigation, while Sail's counsel argued that he was suffering from health issues.

After the hearing, the judge remanded him to two days of police custody till September 12 and directed officials to provide necessary facilities as he was unwell, and not to conduct late night inquiries. The court also allowed him to receive home cooked food.

Karwar–Ankola MLA Sail had earlier been convicted in the illegal export of mined iron ore, following which the ED registered a case under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) against him.

Earlier, the ED had raided the MLA's residence and multiple locations on August 13 and 14, seizing Rs 1.68 crore in cash, 6.75 kg of gold, and several documents, while also freezing bank accounts worth Rs 14.13 crore.

BR Patil says CID probe hasn't reached logical end

'VOTE THEFT'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kalaburagi

ALAND MLA BR Patil, who is also Deputy Chairman of the State Policy and Planning Commission, said though the CID started investigating online applications sent to the Election Commission for deleting names of voters from the electoral list during the 2023 Assembly elections, the investigation has not reached its logical end. The attempt was allegedly made in Aland constituency, without the voters' knowledge.

Addressing the media here on Tuesday, Patil said the attempt corroborates the 'Vote theft' campaign launched by Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi. He said the probe into deletion of names was entrusted to the CID by the state government, and the Election Commission is not cooperating with the investigation. For this reason, tracing details of the computers and IP addresses from which the online applications were submitted, have become technically difficult, so the case has been referred to the cyber crime department, he said.

Patil said from February 9, 2022, to February 20, 2023, 6,018 applications in Form 7 were submitted to the Election Commission through various apps, to delete names on the voters' list. The Election Commission had deleted 24 names from the voters' list and the remaining 5,994 applications were sent to Mamata Kumari, then Assistant Commissioner and Assistant Voters' Registration Officer, and also Aland tahsildar. An inquiry revealed a plan to remove names of 5,994 voters without their knowledge.

There were no names or signatures of the applicants on the forms. A case was registered at Aland Police Station and an FIR was registered. Patil said if he had not taken the issue seriously, there was a possibility of his defeat in the 2023 elections. He had filed a case as soon as he learnt about the fraud. The EC had initially cooperated with the investigating agency, but is now refusing to provide details, which means it is supporting the BJP candidate, Patil said.

HC orders return of Sabarimala gold taken for repair works

Travancore Devaswom Board claims due process was followed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

COMING down heavily on the Travancore Devaswom Board (TDB) for sending gold-plated sheets of the 'dwarapalaka idols' of Sabarimala to Chennai for repair without informing the special commissioner or the court, the Kerala High Court on Wednesday directed the board to bring the sheets back. It also sought explanation from Devaswom officials for what it said was 'wilful violation' of the earlier directive.

A division bench comprising Justice Raja Vijayaraghavan and Justice K V Jayakumar said, "Since the repair work has been undertaken without proper intimation, we deem it necessary to direct the board to forthwith stop the repair work being carried out at Smart Creations in Ambattur Industrial Estate, Chennai, on the sponsorship of Unnikrishnan Potti. Items transported shall be re-transported back to the Sannidhanam."

The bench said the Devaswom commissioner, executive officer and Thiruvabharanam commissioner shall show cause why action should not be taken against them for wilful violation of the earlier binding directions.

The HC had issued specific directions to the Devaswom and Thiruvabharanam commissioners to ensure all such activities in the temple's sreekovil shall be undertaken only with prior intimation to the special commissioner to enable him to file a report before the HC if necessary and seek appropriate orders.

Sabarimala special commissioner R Jayakrishnan on Tuesday said he got information on September 8 that the gold covering of the Dwarapalaka idols of the hill shrine's sanctum sanctorum were detached and sent to Chennai for restoration work without the mandatory permission of the court.

COURT'S OBSERVATIONS

- The seats of the Dwarapalakas as well as the door panels and lintel of the sreekovil are themselves to be plated. These fixtures, by their very nature, cannot be transported to Chennai
- The plating works are ordinarily undertaken under strict supervision within the Sannidhanam premises itself
- The removal of the gold platings without prior written intimation, followed by their immediate transportation to Chennai, amounts to an unwarranted and irregular exercise
- The TDB shall produce the entire file and records relating to the repairs of the gold-plated copper coverings over the "dwarapalaka idols" on September 12 (Friday)

HAL inks SSLV tech transfer with ISRO, IN-SPACE and NSIL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

A Technology Transfer Agreement was signed on Wednesday between Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL), Indian National Space Promotion and Authorisation Centre (IN-SPACe) and NewSpace India Limited (NSIL) for the production of the Small Satellite Launch Vehicle (SSLV).

This is the 100th agreement that IN-SPACe has signed on space technology. It is said to be a formative step towards democratising the SSLV space.

The technology transfer process will be completed within two years. This signing follows the June 20, 2025, announcement of HAL as the successful bidder in a competitive process managed by IN-SPACe.

Speaking on the technology transfer, V Narayanan, ISRO Chairman, said, "With India's liberalisation of the commercial space sector, opportunities are certainly growing and at ISRO, we have a dynamic technology transfer mechanism to realise the shared goals. This agreement is part of that movement, where ISRO will guide the HAL team on the preparedness-to-flight tangent of SSLV. This would define the next phase of deep-tech collaboration in space in India."

Dr Pawan Kumar Goenka, Chairman, IN-SPACe, said, "The SSLV transfer signals a vital leap towards strengthening the industrial ecosystem within India's space sector. The partnership reflects the Central government's vision to empower the space industry and establish India as a global hub for affordable and reliable launch services. HAL will now independently take up the realisation of SSLV and cater to both domestic and international markets."

ISRO said that the SSLV was developed by ISRO as a quick turnaround, on-demand launch vehicle that is amenable to industrial production and is targeted to capture the global small satellite launch vehicle market.

AP airlifts first batch of stranded citizens

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

THE state government, in close coordination with the Government of India, the Embassy of India in Kathmandu, and Nepalese authorities, has launched a large-scale evacuation of Telugu citizens stranded in Nepal. The first batch of 21 citizens is being airlifted on Wednesday, marking the beginning of the operation.

According to official figures, 217 citizens from Andhra Pradesh have been traced across Nepal. Most of them, 173, are in Kathmandu, while 22 are in Hetauda, 10 in Pokhara, and 12 in Simikot near the Nepal-China border. All are reported safe and in regular contact with AP Bhawan officials.

Demographic details reveal that 118 (55%) are women and 98 (45%) are men. Nearly 70% are over 50 years of age, and 31% are above 60. The largest groups hail from Visakhapatnam (42), Vizianagaram (34), and Kurnool (22), with others spread across 22 districts.

With the situation stabilizing after the Nepal Army took control, a curfew remains in force until 6:00 AM on Wednesday. Many citizens are staying in hotels between 1-4.5 km from Kathmandu's international airport.

For evacuation, an IndiGo aircraft with a 218-seat capacity is on standby in Delhi and will depart for Kathmandu on Thursday at 12:50 PM. Passengers will be escorted to the airport under Nepal Army security. Simikot evacuees will be moved by Buddha Air to Nepalgunj, with helicopters on standby. Arrangements are also being made for citizens in Pokhara and Hetauda through a combination of air and road routes via Bihar.

Minister Nara Lokesh is directly monitoring the operation from the RTG Command Center at Amaravati. Lokesh assured families that "every effort is being made" to bring all citizens home safely at the earliest.

Special court to be set up soon for Naxals' trial

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

SOON after six Naxalites surrendered on January 8, 2025, Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah had declared that the state had become Naxal-free and extended aid for them to lead a normal life. Nine Naxals continue to be in prison, without bail or proper treatment for their ailments, mainly due to delay in filing of chargesheets by police, and setting up of fast-track courts. The law department has approached the High Court on setting up a special court, and a decision is expected soon.

The six who surrendered are Vasantha K from Vellore, Tamil Nadu, Mundagaru Latha from Sringeri, Vanajakshi Balehole from Kalasa, Sundari Kutluru from Dakshina Kannada, Mareppa Aroli from Raichur, and N Jeesha from Wayanad, Kerala.

The Naxalites' request for more compensation for shifting them to Category A from B, withdrawing certain cases against them, and implementing previous surrender packages (promised some years ago) remain unfulfilled, according to the Naxal Surrender and Rehabilitation Committee.

"The government's actions do not meet the expectations or promises made, and a legal procedure should be in place as surrendered Naxals have reposed faith in the government, which will ensure they return to normal life soon. Earlier, they were living in the forests, and now they are in jail, and it does not make any difference," remarked committee member Banjagere Jayaprakash, a noted writer.

The Karnataka government had written to the Kerala government in February 2025 to initiate legal action on the 184 pending cases against the surrendered Naxals, but Kerala responded only on July 2, 2025, giving its assurance on the same. Meanwhile, there was a difference of opinion among committee members on the government's plan to set up a special court in Shivamogga at the behest of committee member KP Sripal. There were objections as Sripal appears for the Naxals in court, which amounts to conflict of interest, says Jayaprakash.

"For many years, I have been working to bring the Naxals into the mainstream, so it does not amount to conflict of interest. I offer legal aid for free," Sripal told TNIE. He also said

Another member, Parvatheesh Bilidale, suggested the government set up the special court in a place convenient for everyone. He also objected to Shantigagi Nagareekara Vedike, a citizens' initiative, working parallelly, and suggested a single window to address the Naxals' issues.

Chief Secretary Dr Shalini Rajaneesh had said the Home department's additional chief secretary was tasked with ensuring the rehabilitation package reached all at the earliest.

IMD alert: Heavy rain this weekend

Food, shelter, medicine prices up, says court

THIS court deems it fit to recommend that the Union revisit Section 9 and revise the ceiling in tune with the cost of living index, so that the Act may not be reduced to a hollow promise, but remain a living guarantee of dignity in old age, it added.

Delivering the verdict, Justice M Nagaprasanna stated that the ceiling was not enhanced even 18 years after the Act came into force. In 2007-08, the cost inflation index stood at 129; today, it soars at 363. Thus, what one could procure for Rs 100 in 2007 requires nearly Rs 1,000 in 2025. Prices of food, shelter and medicine have climbed steeply; the statutory cap of Rs 10,000 has remained untouched, adding that Section 9 remained the same despite 34th amendment to the Act 34 in 2019.

The court observed that the state government cannot exceed Rs 10,000 per month, as the central enactment caps it at Rs 10,000. No state can frame Rules which could travel beyond Section 9(2) on the grant of maintenance beyond Rs 10,000.

Quashing the order dated April 16, 2021, passed by the Assistant Commissioner (AC) exparte to pay Rs 5 lakh as 'compensation' jointly by the four sons, including Sunil H Bohra and a daughter-in-law, who were the petitioners residing in the city, to their father and stepmother, as there was no such provision under the Act to pass order as contended by them, the court remitted the matter to the AC for consideration afresh keeping in mind the observations made in this order.

The court said that the petitioners should pay Rs 10,000 per month each to their parents as maintenance from April 16, 2021, to the date of the order of the AC. The order of maintenance at Rs 10,000 stands enhanced to Rs 30,000 to each of the petitioners from today, till the matter is decided by the AC. In the event the amount of Rs 5 lakh is already paid by the petitioners to parents, the same should be given set off towards arrears to be paid at RS 10,000 each per month, the court said while directing the Registrar to forward a copy of this order to the Additional Solicitor General of India to place it before the Ministry of Finance to consider its recommendation.

TASK CUT OUT FOR NEW V-P TO PROTECT DEMOCRATIC SPACE

AS contests go, the vice presidential poll was decided the day it began. NDA's candidate C P Radhakrishnan had over 100 votes more than the united opposition's pick, Justice B Sudershan Reddy, a former Supreme Court judge. The only point of interest was the margin of victory. The NDA expected 439 votes, which included commitments of support from other smaller entities. But it got 13 more, giving a jolt to the opposition INDIA bloc. All 315 opposition MPs had turned up to vote, with senior Congress leader Jairam Ramesh calling it an "unprecedented 100 percent turnout". Yet, Justice Reddy got just 300 votes, implying cross-voting. The finger of suspicion on the betrayal was levelled at the Aam Aadmi Party, which is out of the INDIA bloc but promised its votes. On the plus side, the opposition polled 40 percent of the votes this time around, as against 26 percent in the vice-presidential election in 2022 that had elected Jagdeep Dhankhar, whose resignation necessitated the fresh poll. Justice Reddy was dignified in defeat, saying democracy is strengthened not just by victory, but by the spirit of dialogue, dissent and participation.

If the opposition made it an all-South linguistic contest by pitting a Telugu speaker against a Tamilian, it did not fetch electoral rewards. The entire Andhra Pradesh went for CPR, while the BRS in Telangana abstained. As for CPR, what value his elevation would bring to the BJP and NDA in Tamil Nadu—except for some bragging rights—is uncertain. He hails from the agrarian Gounder community in west Tamil Nadu, which is the pocket borough of the AIADMK. CPR is affable, has RSS roots and the right OBC credentials. He gained legislative knowledge on the go with two stints as a Lok Sabha member, and had administrative exposure as governor in multiple states including Maharashtra.

But managing a polarised Rajya Sabha as its chairman dispassionately, while giving equal space and dignity to the opposition and the treasury, is a big challenge. His predecessor Dhankhar was often seen as preachy and partisan. The office of the Vice-President is the second highest in the order of precedence in the constitutional scheme. The independence and fairness CPR brings to the table in upholding democratic values will be closely watched. Here's wishing him the best.

MONITOR ROAD SAFETY, SET MAINTENANCE RULES

IN a horrendous incident on Tuesday, a 44-year-old woman died when she unsuspectingly rode into a pothole, causing her to fall and get crushed under a speeding truck's wheels on National Highway 66 near Mangaluru. The ministry of road transport and highways has reported 9,109 deaths nationwide—mainly of two-wheeler riders—between 2019 and 2023 because of potholes. The Supreme Court, while hearing the S Rajaseekaran (2025) case, noted that deaths due to potholes in India surpassed those from terrorist attacks, and attributed the terribly high incidence to municipal authorities failing to effectively discharge their duties.

Potholes appear due to inadequate road maintenance, especially where substandard material is used. But it is negligence and apathy that prevails in compromising road maintenance, be they on national or state highways, district roads, or thoroughfares in cities, towns and villages. There is a lack of public awareness about legal recourse, too, despite the Bombay High Court's 2015 ruling that the right to safe and properly maintained roads is part of the right to life under Article 21 of the Constitution, and that citizens have a right to seek compensation for any loss caused by the violation of this right. Even the Supreme Court recognised the liability of the state for the acts of public servants in cases where fundamental rights are infringed upon, wherein the law of tort can be applied using Article 300 to deal with any breach of duty committed by them.

The authorities need to be held strictly accountable and elected representatives need to use their offices to monitor road safety in their jurisdictions. There's a need for a codified legal framework spelling out road maintenance duties for the authorities concerned, while equipping them with state-of-the-art pothole repair machines. Strict accountability, standardised contractor protocols and regular audits need to be put in place, alongside stricter penalties to deter them from being negligent or apathetic. An efficient redress system is a must, as is a time-bound compensation process for such accident victims. It's a long road ahead, though not one impossible to traverse. Otherwise India would undermine its commitment to the international community on road safety under the UN Sustainable Development Goals and the UN Decade of Action for Road Safety 2021-2030, which aims to reduce road deaths by half.

QUICK TAKE

FLY US TO THE MOON

YOU want to send your loved one's name around the moon? Nasa will allow you to do just that aboard its Artemis 2 mission next April. The four-astronaut flight around Earth's satellite will stow the names submitted by January 21 on a digital memory card inside Orion, the spacecraft. Attracting public participation is a Nasa tradition Isro can surely learn from. How about inviting Indians to suggest names for rockets, probes, rovers and capsules? Yes, there is a possibility of mischief. When the UK's Natural Environment Research Council invited a public vote for its new polar research vessel's name, 'Boaty McBoatface' won by a landslide. But the yellow submarine attracted a level of attention beyond the scientists' wildest dreams.

A short conversation between Trump and a private Indian citizen may be behind the recent warming of India-US ties. What happens now will depend on the governments

A GULF THAT WAS BRIDGED ON GOLF COURSE

K P NAYAR
Strategic analyst

SOURAV ROY

BEHIND a seeming thaw in the atmospherics between India and the US from last week is Washington's biggest secret of the moment—a meeting between President Donald Trump and a private Indian citizen.

The venue of the meeting? Where else, but a golf course! How long did the meeting last? Just over 10 minutes, which is about the duration of the septuagenarian president's normal attention span. The two men did not discuss trade tariffs. It was not a diplomacy pow-wow. They talked about Trump's daughter Ivanka's 2017 visit to Hyderabad. The Indian citizen was very much there. They recalled Trump's visit to Ahmedabad 27 months later. The Indian was present there too, and told Trump that seeing him in person was the greatest moment in the lives of a quarter million people in Gujarat. "A quarter million Indians!" Trump exclaimed. "Explain that to me." There were 1,32,000 people inside the Narendra Modi Stadium, which was filled to capacity, was the explanation. There were an equal number of people who lined up on the route of Trump's cavalcade wherever he went in Ahmedabad. Trump knows that he cannot get that kind of a crowd in his own country. Or for that matter, anywhere else in the world.

Exaggerating the importance of the 'Namaste Trump' events five years ago, the Indian said it was one of the high points in his life as well. The hype was meant solely to hit its target—Trump's huge ego. The two men briefly talked about real estate projects promoted by the Trump Organization, which entered commercial property development in Pune five months ago for the first time in India. Praise was showered on the vision of Trump's son Eric, who is in charge of the India projects, and whom the Indian has met many times in connection with this real estate business. India is set to have the most number of Trump Towers anywhere in the world outside the US.

As someone who followed Trump extensively during his successful 2016 presidential election and reported on his first term in the White House, this author has little doubt that this golf course conversation with the Indian prompted the president's recollection last week of his "special relationship" with Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "I'll always be friends with Modi, he is a great prime minister," Trump said. The prime minister promptly and "deeply" appreciated Trump's remarks and "fully" reciprocated those sentiments. It was only the first time that Modi has mentioned Trump's name since the tariff crisis engulfed the Indian public domain. On Tuesday, Trump remained positive, describing India and the US as "great countries". Modi again responded, saying he looked forward to speaking with the president.

I am not naming the private Indian citizen because he has not reported his meeting with the president to the Indian government. "Why should I tell the Indian government?" he asked me. His was an act of goodwill in statecraft. I am not calling him an interlocutor because he was not one. He was not even a back channel. He was merely leveraging his many years of engaging with the president and members of his family. His aim was to contribute whatever he could to repair India-US relations, in which he has invested more than three decades and continues to do so.

Probing this meeting in Washington, I discovered that no one in the official structure of the Trump administration knows about it either. Except one person whom the president trusts the most in Washington: his sole gatekeeper in the White House. In his second administration, Trump has filled this gatekeeper's post with extreme care, avoiding the pitfalls in his first term when aides played musical chairs. When the gatekeeper wanted to create an official record of the conversation, Trump said it was not necessary. It was a golf turf chat, he said. No official business was discussed. What was there to record, except emotions and sentiments?

There are several Americans who are aware of this meeting—those who saw the two men amiably converse on the grass in their full view, for example. But they are all outside the US administration. Maybe, one day Trump will talk about this meeting, if indeed it impacts his India policy in the long run. When the president plays golf, only trustworthy people are allowed on the course. They will not loosely blabber about what happens there.

Where do we go from here? The meeting's impact 'in the long run' now depends entirely on the Indian government's actions and the public pronouncements of its political leaders. Nothing is secret anymore about India's tariff negotiations with the Trump administration. In dribbles, since February, when Modi called on Trump at the White House, the president has revealed everything there is to know about these trade talks. About a week ago, Trump said India offered zero tariff on US goods at one point. In contrast, India has officially said very little about the content of the five rounds of discussions it had with Washington officials.

Leaks aimed at a domestic audience have been numerous. This was bad strategy and has weakened India's case within the US, where Trump's position has big support. The only tactical mistake Trump made was to top up his original 25 percent duty with an additional "sanction" of 25 percent in the name of Russian oil purchases. It was a tactical mistake because it was India-specific and China was exempted from a similar levy.

There is a strong political view in New Delhi that India should maintain its macho stance with the US until after the Bihar elections and then compromise with Trump. Canada's Prime Minister Mark Carney did just that. He won the Canadian elections in April on strident anti-US rhetoric and cut retaliatory tariffs on US goods from September 1.

To reach any trade agreement with the Trump administration, India must honestly admit publicly that its import duties on American goods are indeed high, for whatever reasons. Domestic public opinion may not digest it, but most countries do believe India is the world's "tariff king", as Trump alleges. A great disparity exists in the reciprocal duties between India and the US. It is not possible for India to continue robust trade with America unless it agrees to reciprocity and equality in mutual commerce.

STATES AT THE CENTRE OF REFORMS

SANJIV BAJAJ
Former President, CII

CHANDRAJIT BANERJEE
Director General, CII

INDIA'S journey towards becoming a globally competitive, inclusive, and sustainable economy will be shaped by the strength and dynamism of its states. By embracing coordinated, data-driven, and outcome-focused reforms, states can unlock unprecedented growth opportunities.

States hold unique influence over business regulation, land management, labour markets, energy, education, healthcare, agriculture, and sustainability. These are vital for industrial expansion, job creation, productivity enhancement, and inclusive development. Aligning national strategies with robust state-led initiatives is, therefore, essential.

A template already exists. The successful rollout and recent reforms of GST demonstrated how Centre-state coordination through the Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers and the GST Council can create effective, carefully-crafted, consensus-based reforms that benefit the entire nation. The model should be extended to build consensus on land, labour, power, agriculture, education, and fiscal sustainability.

Creating an enabling business environment is a fundamental step for encouraging private investment. States should streamline all approvals through the national single-window system, with time-bound clearances and legally recognised digital certificates to reduce delays. Fast-tracking dispute resolution through dedicated courts and alternative mechanisms will further ease business. Decriminalising business-facing state laws would strengthen trust between government and industry.

Addressing land issues remains a priority. States could establish online, integrated land authorities to digitise and integrate land data across departments. These could serve as single points for allotment, provide clarity on disputed parcels, and help transition to government-guaranteed land titles.

Simplifying forest land diversion for projects under 50 hectares, especially in mining, by delegating authority to states, can also accelerate development without compromising safeguards.

Labour reforms are another area for swift action. Prompt implementation of the four Labour Codes, with clear transition plans and advisory support from the Centre, will encourage industry and employment generation, especially in labour-intensive sectors. Compliance should be centralised via an enhanced Shram Suvidha portal offering single-window filings, annual returns, and time-bound approvals.

Energy is an important factor input, and its costs and availability are key determinants of competitiveness. Fostering private sector participation in distribution and transmission can dramatically improve efficiency. States adopting reforms such as tariff-based competitive bidding and discom privatisation should be rewarded with incentives like enhanced borrowing limits or long-term, interest-free capital loans. Rationalising and eventually phasing out open access charges will also be critical in making the electricity sector more competitive and affordable.

WIKIMEDIA COMMONS

States hold several keys to business growth. Comprehensive reforms in states' land, labour and energy sectors can yield significant benefits in the form of national growth. The GST model for Centre-state coordination could be effective for this purpose

Another area that the states need to address is instituting more sustainable mechanisms for providing free or cheaper power to certain user segments. This should be done through direct benefit transfers by the states to targeted end users, helping improve discoms' financial health immensely.

Fiscal stability remains a cornerstone for sustainable growth. States can enhance their financial resilience by adopting long-term fiscal risk reporting, drawing inspiration from international best practices such as Brazil's decade-long forecasts and the UK's 50-year projections. They should also work towards prioritising expenditure to bring down overall fiscal deficits and debt levels.

Unlocking the value of state assets presents another opportunity. On the lines of the National Monetisation Plan, states could draw up their own plans. The central government could support the intervention through a dedicated asset monetisation cell within the finance ministry or Niti Aayog to provide technical support. This will open a new resource stream for states to undertake infrastructure and developmental projects.

Agriculture, the backbone of rural livelihoods, must also be revitalised. States with lower irrigation levels can replicate successful models from Telangana and Madhya Pradesh. Extending concessional loans for climate-resilient irrigation systems will bolster productivity and counter erratic monsoons.

To reap the demographic dividend, the Centre and states must work together to provide quality education, healthcare, and jobs for the youth. For job creation, integrating state and national employment databases under a National Career Service platform, enhanced with AI-driven matching, can bridge the skills-opportunity gap.

Healthcare access can be significantly improved by adopting hub-and-spoke models for service delivery in small towns, complemented by digital command hubs and e-ICUs to ensure quality care in remote areas.

States also have a vital role in promoting sustainable development. Green procurement policies prioritising crop residue-based products can drive a circular economy, reduce pollution and support rural entrepreneurship. These state efforts should be supported under the Centre's Green Procurement Scheme.

It is the proactive engagement of states across key sectors that will ultimately define the pace and breadth of India's growth story.

'Mohan Bhagwat Ji embodies clear vision, decisive action in abundance'

NARENDRA MODI
Prime Minister

TODAY is September 11th. This day evokes two contrasting remembrances. The first dates back to 1893, when Swami Vivekananda delivered his iconic Chicago address. With the few words, "Sisters and Brothers of America," he won the hearts of thousands present in the hall. He introduced the timeless spiritual heritage of India and the emphasis on universal brotherhood to the world stage. The second is the gruesome 9/11 attacks, when this very principle came under attack thanks to the menace of terrorism and radicalism.

There is something else about this day which is noteworthy. Today is the birthday of a personality who, inspired by the principle of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, has dedicated his entire life to societal transformation and strengthening the spirit of harmony and fraternity. For lakhs of people associated with the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh, he is respectfully referred to as Param Pujya Sarsanghchalak. Yes, I am referring to Shri Mohan Bhagwat Ji, whose 75th birthday is, incidentally, falling in the same year when the RSS marks its centenary. I would like to convey my best wishes to him and pray for his long and healthy life.

My association with Mohan Ji's family has been very deep. I have had the good fortune of working closely with Mohan Ji's father, the late Madhukarrao Bhagwat Ji. I have written extensively about him in my book, Jyotipunj. Along with his association with the legal world, he devoted himself to nation-building. He played a pivotal role in strengthening the RSS across Gujarat. Such was Madhukarrao Ji's passion towards nation-building that it groomed his son, Mohanrao, to work towards India's regeneration. It is as if Parasmani Madhukarrao prepared another Parasmani in Mohanrao.

Mohan Ji became a Pracharak in the mid-1970s. Upon hearing the word 'Pracharak', one may mistakenly think it refers to someone who is simply doing Prachar or campaigning, propagating ideas. But, those familiar with the working of the RSS understand that the Pracharak tradition is at the core of the organisation's work. Over the last hundred years, thousands of young people, inspired by a patriotic zeal, have left their homes and families to dedicate their lives to realising the mission of India First.

His early years in the RSS coincided with a very dark period of Indian history. This was the time the draconian Emergency was imposed by the then Congress government. For every person who cherished democratic principles and wanted India to prosper, it was natural to strengthen the anti-Emergency movement. This is exactly what Mohan Ji and countless RSS Swayamsevaks did. He worked extensively in rural and backward areas of Maharashtra, especially Vidarbha.

BHAGWAT JI HAS ALWAYS BEEN A STRONG VOTARY OF 'EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT', A FIRM BELIEVER IN INDIA'S DIVERSITY AND THE CELEBRATION OF SO MANY DIFFERENT CULTURES AND TRADITIONS THAT ARE A PART OF OUR LAND.

This shaped his understanding of the challenges faced by the poor and downtrodden.

Over the years, Bhagwat Ji held various positions in the RSS. He performed each and every one of those duties with great dexterity. Mohan Ji's years as the head of the Akhil Bharatiya Sharirik Pramukh during the 1990s are still fondly remembered by many Swayamsevaks. During this period, he spent considerable time working in the villages of Bihar. These experiences further deepened his connect with grassroots issues. In 2000, he became the Sarkaryawah and here too, he brought his unique way of working, handling the most complex of situations with ease and precision. In 2009, he became the Sarsanghchalak and continues to work with great vibrancy.

Being Sarsanghchalak is more than an organisational responsibility. Extraordinary individuals have defined this role through personal sacrifice, clarity of purpose and unshakable commitment to Maa Bharti. Mohan Ji, in addition to doing full justice to the enormity of the responsibility, has also brought to it his own strength, intellectual depth and empathetic leadership, all of which is inspired by the principle of Nation First.

If I can think of two attributes Mohan Ji has held close to his heart and imbibed in his work style, they are continuity and adaptation. He has always steered the Organisation through very complex currents, never compromising on the core ideology we are all proud of and at the same time addressing the evolving needs of society. He has a natural connect with the youth and thus, has always focussed on integrating more youngsters with the Sangh Parivar. He is often seen engaging in public discourse and interacting with people, which has been very beneficial in today's dynamic and digital world.

Broadly speaking, Bhagwat Ji's tenure will be considered the most transformative period in the 100-year journey of the RSS. From the change in uniform to the modifications in the Shiksha Vargs (training camps), several significant changes occurred under his leadership.

I particularly remember Mohan Ji's efforts during the COVID period, when humanity battled a once in a lifetime pandemic. In those times, continuing the traditional RSS activities became challenging. Mohan Ji suggested increased usage of technology. In the context of the global challenges, he remained connected with global perspectives while developing institutional frameworks.

At that time, all Swayamsevaks made every possible effort to reach out to those in need, while ensuring the safety of themselves and others. Medical camps were organised in several places. We also lost many of our hardworking Swayamsevaks, but such was the inspiration of Mohan Ji that their determination never wavered.

Earlier this year, during the inauguration of the Madhav Netra Chikitsalaya in Nagpur, I had remarked that the RSS is like an Akshayavat, an eternal banyan tree that energises the national culture and collective consciousness of our nation. The roots of this Akshayavat are deep and strong because they are anchored in values. The dedication with which Mohan Bhagwat Ji has committed himself to nurturing and advancing these values is truly inspirational.

Another admirable quality of Mohan Ji's personality is his soft-spoken nature. He is blessed with an exceptional ability to listen. This trait ensures a deeper perspective and also brings a sense of sensitivity and dignity to his persona and leadership.

Here, I also want to write about the keen interest he has always shown towards various mass movements. From Swachh Bharat Mission to Beti Bachao Beti Padhao, he always urges the entire RSS family to add vigour through these movements. In order to further social well-being, Mohan Ji has given the 'Panch Parivartan', which includes social harmony, family values, environmental awareness, national selfhood and civic duties. These can inspire Indians from all walks of life. Every Swayamsevak dreams of seeing a strong and prosperous nation. To realise this dream, what is required is both clear vision and decisive action. Mohan Ji embodies both these qualities in abundance.

Bhagwat Ji has always been a strong votary of 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat', a firm believer in India's diversity and the celebration of so many different cultures and traditions that are a part of our land.

Beyond his busy schedule, Mohan Ji has always found time to pursue passions like music and singing. Few people know that he is very versatile in various Indian musical instruments. His passion for reading can be seen in several of his speeches and interactions.

This year, in a few days from now, the RSS turns 100. It is also a pleasant coincidence that this year, Vijaya Dashami, Gandhi Jayanti, Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti and the RSS centenary celebrations are on the same day. It will be a historic milestone for lakhs of people associated with the RSS in India and the world. And, we have a very wise and hardworking Sarsanghchalak in Mohan Ji, steering the organisation in these times. I will conclude by saying that Mohan Ji is a living example of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, showing that when we rise above boundaries and consider everyone as our own, it strengthens trust, brotherhood and equality in society. I once again wish Mohan Ji a long and healthy life in service of Maa Bharti.

₹7.6K cr projects for Bihar cleared

CCEA, chaired by PM Modi, okays 2 key infra projects in a major boost to poll-bound state

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

IN a major pre-poll boost ahead of Bihar assembly elections in October-November, the government on Wednesday approved two key infrastructure projects worth ₹7,616 crore for the state.

Briefing media about the decisions taken at the meeting of the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs (CCEA), chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Information & Broadcasting Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw said, first of the two projects is construction of 82-km green field Mokama-Munger section of the Buxar-Bhagalpur highspeed National Highway corridor worth ₹ 4,447 crore.

The second decision has been taken for doubling of the 177-km Bhagalpur-Dumka-Rampurhat rail line with an estimated cost of ₹3,169 crore, as both of these are likely to be completed in next three years, the Minister informed.

According to an official release, the construction of the four-lane access-control highway project is estimated to generate nearly 14.83 lakh man-days of direct employment and another 18.46 lakh man-days of indirect employment, creating an opportunity to foster additional employment to boost economic activity in the state.

It further said that the road project would support an average vehicle speed of 80 km/h, with a design speed of 100 km/h, as the aim is to reduce the overall travel time by approximately 1.5 hours.

"The increased economic activity in the region is expected to drive up the freight movement and the traffic on the Mokama-Munger section in the future," Vaishnaw said.

The 177-km Bhagalpur-Dumka-Rampurhat rail project will significantly improve connectivity among Bihar, Jharkhand, and West Bengal, as "the multi-tracking proposal will ease operations and reduce congestion, providing the much-required infrastructural development on the busiest sections across Indian Railways network", the Minister said.

Noting that the railway cargo had been on the decline since Independence and had hit a low of 27% in recent times, Vaishnaw said, with the slew measures taken under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the same has "now risen to nearly 29%".

He said the approval of infrastructure projects worth ₹11 lakh crore during PM Modi's third term reflects a "transformational change" that is boosting employment and improving lives of people.

According to the government release, the new doubling of railway line project "will serve five districts covering 441 villages and about 28.72 lakh people in three states as the national transport monolith expands its network nationwide".

"Project section also provides rail connectivity to prominent destinations such as Deoghar (Baba Baidyanath Dham), Tarapith (Shakti Peeth) etc., attracting pilgrims and tourists from across the country," the government said in the note.

This route has been termed as an essential route for the transportation of commodities like coal, cement, fertilisers, bricks and stones.

Knives out in INDIA bloc over cross-voting in V-P poll

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE row over the claims of cross voting in the Vice Presidential election deepened on Wednesday with allegations flying thick and fast in the ruling NDA and the INDIA bloc camps blaming each other on the issue. While Union ministers and senior BJP leaders took aim at the opposition for the fissures in their ranks, senior Congress leader Rahul Gandhi alleged 'Vote theft' in the Vice President election, in which NDA candidate CP Radhakrishnan was elected with 'more than expected' margin.

Knives were out in the Opposition camp too, with Trinamool Congress (TMC) hinting at the possibility of cross voting by AAP members. Speaking to reporters in Kolkata, TMC MP Abhishek Bajnerjee asserted that all of the 41 members voted for opposition nominee B. Sudershan Reddy.

"Since this was a secret ballot vote, it's difficult to say whether there was cross-voting or whether Opposition members' votes were discarded. Even if I accept that there was cross-voting, there are certain parties like AAP, where a woman MP openly supports BJP and speaks against Arvind Kejriwal. There are 2-4 such MPs," he said.

"Yesterday, I spoke to a few people and learned that they spent Rs 15-20 crores on each person to buy votes. People elected as representatives are selling the people's trust and emotions. Representatives can be bought, but not the people. BJP has tried this again, but since this was a secret ballot, everything is speculation. It is a matter of speculation whether the 15 votes which were declared null and void were from the INDIA bloc or not. There could be certain people who said they were aligned with INDIA but were still supporting BJP," said Banerjee.

Radhakrishnan secured a total of 452 votes, while the INDIA bloc candidate, B Sudershan Reddy, managed to get only 300 votes, though it was expecting to get 320 plus.

Though several senior Congress leaders maintained that the result was a 'moral victory' for the Opposition, some spoke in different voices. Responding to the cross voting allegations, senior Congress MP Manish Tewari demanded a probe into such claims. "If there was cross-voting, then it should be seriously investigated by each of the constituents of the INDIA Alliance. Cross-voting is an extremely serious matter. If at all what is being said or speculated has an iota of truth in it, it deserves a systematic and clinical investigation", Tewari told the media.

Nationwide SIR: EC meet with CEOs of states/UTs to review preparedness

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

THE Election Commission of India (ECI) on Wednesday held day-long deliberations with the Chief Electoral Officers (CEOs) of all states and Union Territories to showcase the modalities adopted in Bihar as part of the ongoing Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls in the state. The poll panel now plans to conduct similar exercise in the rest of the country.

This was the third such meeting of CEOs after Gyanesh Kumar took over as the Chief Election Commissioner in February. Wednesday's meeting assumed significance as the preparedness of a pan-India SIR was discussed, officials said.

According to an ECI statement, the discussion was inaugurated by Kumar in the presence of Election Commissioners Dr Sukhbir Singh Sandhu and Dr Vivek Joshi and assessed the preparedness of offices of the CEOs of all the states/UTs for a nationwide SIR exercise.

"A presentation on the strategies, constraints and best practices adopted was made by the CEO Bihar so that his counterparts in the rest of the country could learn from Bihar experiences," an ECI official said. Other CEOs also gave presentations on the number of electors, qualifying date of last SIR and electoral roll in their respective states/UTs as per the last completed SIR, the official said.

The CEOs presented the status of digitisation and uploading of the electoral roll after the previous SIR on their respective websites, he said, adding that they also gave the status of mapping of current electors as per the last SIR in their states/UTs.

"In order to ensure that there is a uniform implementation of the panel's initiative to ensure that no polling station has over 1,200 electors, the status of rationalisation of process was reviewed," the official said.

"During the meeting the CEOs also provided suggested documents for the purpose of ensuring that no eligible citizen is left out of the electoral roll and no ineligible person is included in it. It was reiterated that these documents should promote ease of submission for the eligible citizens," he said.

Indications are there that the SIR exercise is likely to commence later this year, ahead of assembly elections in Assam, Kerala, Puducherry, Tamil Nadu and West Bengal in 2026, as the primary aim of the intensive revision is to weed out illegal migrants by checking their place of birth.

Physiotherapists can't use 'Dr' prefix, says govt

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

NOW, physiotherapists cannot prefix their names with 'Dr.' In a U-turn, the centre has issued directives to physiotherapists in the country not to use the prefix 'Dr.'

The change in stance came after strong protest from the Indian Medical Association (IMA), which has over 4 lakh medical practitioners, as its members, and other medical bodies and organisations.

Interestingly, the letter issued by the Directorate General of Health Services (DGHS) under the Union Health Ministry, was issued on September 9, a day after World Physiotherapy Day was celebrated globally.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi also posted on X recognising the work of physiotherapists, stating that they play a vital role in enhancing the well-being and dignity of people, particularly the elderly.

Physiotherapists were given a go ahead to use the prefix 'Dr' after the National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare published its approved curriculum for them on April 23. In the letter, DGHS, Dr Sunita Sharma, said by using the 'Dr.' prefix, physiotherapists will be in legal violation of the Indian Medical Degrees Act, 1916.

NOT MEDICAL DOCS

- Persons with qualifications in physiotherapy are not entitled to use the prefix "Dr."
- Violation will attract legal action
- "Doctor" (Dr.) may only be used by registered medical practitioners of modern medicine, Ayurveda, Homoeopathy, & Unani
- No other category of medical professionals permitted to use this title
- More appropriate, respectful title may be considered for physiotherapists: DGHS

She, however, suggested that a more appropriate and respectful title may be considered for graduates and postgraduates of physiotherapy, without causing ambiguity to the public.

Dr Dilip Bhanushali, National President, IMA, told this paper that it is a "big victory" as not everyone can use the prefix 'Dr.' Dr Bhanushali, who had written a letter to Union Health Minister JP Nadda, Secretary Health, Punya Salila Srivastava, National Medical Commission (NMC), and others, flagging the issue, said the prefix 'Dr' could be misleading and its use should be restricted.

In the letter, which was addressed to Dr Bhanushali, the DGHS said the directorate has received several representations and strong objections from various organisations, including the Indian Association of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (IAPMR), regarding the use of the prefix "Dr" and suffix "PT" by physiotherapists.

She said the IAPMR has informed that the issue arises from the Competency Based Curriculum for Physiotherapy Approved Syllabus 2025 published by the National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare on March 23.

In her letter, she listed the points of concern, stating that physiotherapists are not trained as medical doctors and, therefore, should not use the prefix "Dr." "Physiotherapists should not be permitted primary care practice and should only treat referred patients, as they are not trained to diagnose medical conditions-some of which may worsen with inappropriate physiotherapy intervention," the letter added.

"In this regard, it is stated that the above recommendation is contrary to legal pronouncements and advisory orders issued by various courts and medical councils in the country," Dr Sharma said.

She cited several court rulings which held that unless physiotherapists are enrolled in the State Medical Register, they cannot practise modern medicine or use the prefix "Dr."

AMID stepped up vigil along the India-Nepal border, Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB) personnel have nabbed 19 prisoners who escaped from Nepal jails taking advantage of the unrest and tried to enter Bihar and UP that border the Himalayan country.

Ten jail inmates who had escaped from Dillibazar jail in Kathmandu were detained at the border in Bihar and nine in UP. SSB sleuths handed the 10 inmates, including two from Bihar, over to Bittha More and Sursand police stations of Sitamarhi district. In UP, the SSB rounded up four Nepali prisoners at Sonouli border in Maharajganj and five at Khunwa border in Siddharthnagar, officials said, adding the security agencies are grilling the Nepali prisoners.

Central agencies have sounded a major security alert along the India-Nepal border, cautioning that miscreants could exploit the unrest to trigger violence in adjoining Indian states. State governments have asked police to ramp up security along the border. "We are keeping a close vigil on the border," said Pramod Kumar Mandal, DIG, Purnea. Madhubani SP Yogendra Kumar said the district police and all border police stations have been placed on high alert. "People are being allowed to cross the border only after thorough frisking. We are checking the identifications. Our efforts are that no anti-social elements cross the border," he said.

Following the state government's directives, UP DGP Rajiv Krishna ordered a round-the-clock surveillance, intensified patrolling, and deployment of additional police personnel in Shravasti, Balrampur, Bahraich, Pilibhit, Lakhimpur Kheri, Siddharthnagar and Maharajganj, the seven districts which share around 600-km long border with Nepal. A special control room has also been set up at the Police Headquarters in Lucknow to assist Indian nationals stranded in Nepal. ADG (law & order) Amitabh Yash said, "The administration is providing all possible assistance to Indian citizens stranded in Nepal."

Security forces have heightened vigilance along the entire border stretch, from Pithoragarh's Dharchula in Uttarakhand to the districts bordering Nepal in Bihar. The SSB has placed all border police stations on high alert, with officers continuously monitoring the situation to prevent any infiltration or disturbances. In Dharchula, movement across the bridge connecting India and Nepal has been stopped, with instructions issued to allow passage only in emergency situations. Uttarakhand CM Pushkar Singh Dhami asked officials to keep an eye on the activities of anti-social or mischievous elements in their respective areas by conducting intensive checking.

Thousands of Indian tourists remain stranded in Nepal following the violent protests that broke out on September 8. Among them are many families from Rajasthan, including the relatives of independent MLA from Bayana, Ritu Banawat, and former Udaipur councilor Anil Singhal. Assembly Speaker Vasudev Devnani said the state government is in constant touch with the Indian Embassy. "The evacuation process will begin as soon as the situation improves," he said.

Chief Minister Bhajanlal Sharma appealed to the stranded people to stay in touch with the Indian Embassy.

'See what is happening in our neighbouring nation,' says CJI, hails Constitution

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

CHIEF Justice of India B R Gavai on Wednesday hailed the Indian Constitution as he cited the violent protests in Nepal while hearing the submissions from the Centre and other parties on the presidential reference on whether the court could impose timelines for governors and the President to deal with bills passed by assemblies.

Referring to the anti-corruption agitation in Nepal, CJI Gavai made these remarks during the 9th day hearing by the five-judge Constitution bench in the presidential reference case.

"We are proud of our Constitution... Look at what is happening in our neighbouring country.... (Nepal)? We have seen what happened in Nepal," the CJI remarked.

The other judge in the bench, Justice Vikram Nath, also backed CJI Gavai's remarks and added that tensions were prevalent in Bangladesh too. "Yes, Bangladesh also," Justice Vikram Nath said, while referring to similar protests that plagued Bangladesh last year.

During the hearing, the CJI cited protests in Nepal to emphasise the stability of India's constitutional framework and the good democratic set-up India is having.

The hearing will continue on Thursday. The top court hinted that it would reserve the judgment. Solicitor General Tushar Mehta contended that out of the 17,000 bills that have been assented to by the Governors since 1970, only 20 have been withheld.

In Rae Bareli, Rahul rakes up 'vote chori' jibe to corner BJP

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

LEADER of Opposition (LoP) in Lok Sabha and Congress' Rae Bareli MP Rahul Gandhi, who is on a two-day visit to his parliamentary constituency, launched a scathing attack on the Election Commission of India (ECI) on Wednesday by reiterating his charge of "vote chori".

In an address to his party workers, he expressed, "The BJP, with the help of ECI, has been stealing votes. If this continues, politics will end in the country. We have evidence that vote theft is going on, and we have to stop it." Rahul rued that though he had produced the evidence, the poll panel continues to operate in an "autocratic" manner. He also took potshots at the PM over his supposed proximity to billionaires, saying, "Narendra Modi wants to give your rightful to Ambani and Adani. He goes out of his way to help them."

He explained at multiple gatherings through the day how the EC allegedly helped the BJP secure electoral victories in Maharashtra, Karnataka and Haryana. The Congress leader also accused the BJP government—both at the Centre and in Uttar Pradesh—of trying to divert people's attention from main issues. The Congress leader also raised burning issues like price rise and unemployment and slammed the Centre for its inability to fix them. Rahul further exhorted the Congressmen to gear up for the 2027 UP poll battle.

U'khand seeks aid package as Modi to visit hill state today

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi is scheduled to conduct an aerial survey of Uttarakhand's disaster-stricken mountainous regions on Thursday, assessing the extensive damage caused by this year's relentless monsoon rains and related calamities.

According to government sources, PM Modi will arrive in Dehradun after attending an event in Varanasi. He is expected to undertake an aerial survey of the disaster-hit areas around 4.15 pm, following which he will hold a high-level review meeting with state officials at Jolly Grant Airport at 5 pm to discuss the relief and rehabilitation efforts. Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami on Wednesday afternoon visited the airport to oversee preparations for the PM's visit, instructing officials to ensure all arrangements are made in a timely and meticulous manner.

CM Dhami highlighted the Prime Minister's deep connection with the state, expressing, "During this difficult time of disaster, the state has constantly received PM Modi's support."

Since April, 85 people have lost their lives in various natural disasters across Uttarakhand, while 94 are still reported missing. Further, assets worth approximately ₹1,944 crore have been destroyed. Speculation is rife that the Centre will announce a significant relief package for the hill state.

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

THE Gujarat government admitted in the Assembly on Wednesday that 307 Asiatic lions, the pride of the state, have died in the last two years, despite spending ₹37.35 crore to prevent unnatural deaths.

The disclosure raises serious questions about conservation strategies, as the lion population now stands at 891, spread across seven districts with the highest concentration in Amreli (339), followed by Gir-Somnath (222), Junagadh (191), Bhavnagar (116), Porbandar (16), Rajkot (6), and Devbhoomi Dwarka (1), according to the 16th Asiatic Lion Census conducted on May 13 this year.

Gujarat wears the crown of being the only home to Asiatic lions in the world, but a silent tragedy is unfolding. The deaths, driven by disease, internal fights, and accidents, reveal a grim battle for survival.

Between August 2023 and July 2024, the state lost 141 lions. From August 2024 to July 2025, the death count spiked to 166, pushing the two-year total to 307 lions lost, a figure that threatens to undo decades of conservation efforts.

In 2023-24, disease emerged as the single largest killer, claiming 60 lives. Shrinking habitats forced lions into closer contact, leading to 38 deaths from territorial fights, while another 24 perished from old age. Human-linked threats also played a deadly role, seven lions fell into open wells, five were struck by trains, three drowned, and one each died in a road accident and by electrocution. By the end of that year, the death toll stood at 141.

In 2024-25, illness-related deaths surged to 81. Internal fights killed 36 lions, while 27 succumbed to old age. Open wells turned deadlier, with 13 lions plunging to their deaths, while six drowned, two died from electric shocks, and one was hit by a vehicle. The result was 166 deaths in a single year.

The state government, however, insists it has been pouring resources into conservation.

Bleeding from 18 bite wounds, 65-yr-old woman battles, kills jackal in 30 minutes

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

CURRENTLY undergoing treatment at a hospital with 18 bite wounds inflicted by a jackal, 65-year-old Surajiya Bai Jatav in Shivpuri district of Madhya Pradesh has emerged as a symbol of grit and bravery.

A resident of Barkhadi village under Badarwas police station of Shivpuri in the Gwalior-Chambal region, the woman had gone to the fields on Monday to collect grass for the cattle when she was attacked by a jackal at around 5 pm.

With none coming to her help as the jackal started biting her, she started defending herself and fought the wild animal for around 30 minutes. Using her frail hands, the woman caught hold of the jackal's jaws with both hands and twisted them in different directions. As the wild animal started getting weakened, the profusely bleeding woman turned and managed to reportedly sit over the jackal.

Wounds may heal in next 7-10 days, say doctors

Doctors attending to the woman has said anti-rabies injections have been administered. "We hope that the wounds will heal in next 7-10 days," a doctor said. Surajiya Bai (65), who lost her husband and elder son due to illnesses, lives with her younger son and the family is dependent on four bighas of land.

Realising that with heavily bleeding bite wounds, she might not be able to battle with the animal for long, she tore a part of her saree and formed a noose, which she fastened around the animal's neck, ultimately strangling the jackal.

While the jackal lay still after the tightening of its neck with the noose, the woman too fell unconscious. It was six-seven hours later that she regained consciousness and found herself at the Shivpuri hospital.

"When we reached the spot, she was lying unconscious with heavy bleeding from multiple wounds and the jackal lay dead close to her with the noose made out of the saree around its neck. We rushed her to the government health centre from where doctors referred her to the Shivpuri hospital," her grandson Devendra Jatav said.

NATO scrambles to confront 19 Russian drones in Poland

EU leaders call incident a 'game changer,' bloc weighs stronger sanctions on Moscow

Police and Military Police secure parts of a damaged object shot down by Polish authorities at a site in Wohyn in Poland | AP

WOHYN

POLAND said that several Russian drones entered its territory over the course of many hours and were shot down with help from NATO allies, describing the incursion as an act of aggression carried out during a wave of Russian strikes on Ukraine.

Russia's Defense Ministry said it did not target Poland, while Belarus, a close ally of Moscow, said it tracked some drones that "lost their course" because they were jammed. However, several European leaders said they believe that the incursion amounted to an intentional escalation by Russia of its war on Ukraine — and that it must be met with a strong response.

Poland said some of the drones came from Belarus, where Russian and Belarusian troops have begun gathering for war games starting on Friday. Polish airspace has been violated many times since Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine in 2022, but there has been nothing on this scale in Poland or anywhere else on NATO territory. A spokesman said it was the first time the alliance has confronted a potential threat in its airspace.

NATO met to discuss the incident, which came three days after Russia's largest aerial attack on Ukraine since the war began. "Russia's war is escalating, not ending," European Union foreign policy chief Kaja Kallas said. "What (Russian President Vladimir) Putin wants to do is to test us" she later told reporters in Brussels. "What happened in Poland is a game changer" and it should result in stronger sanctions.

The extent of the incursion was still becoming clear: Polish Prime Minister Donald Tusk told parliament 19 violations were recorded over seven hours, but that information was still being gathered. Nine crash sites have been found, Polish authorities said, and some were hundreds of kilometers from the border. Dutch fighter jets came to Poland's aid and intercepted some drones, the Netherlands' defense minister said.

"There are definitely no grounds to suspect that this was a course correction mistake or the like," German Defense Minister Boris Pistorius told parliament. AP

Russia pushes boundaries with mounting air violations

BUCHAREST

RUSSIA's violation of Poland's airspace with drones on Wednesday marks the most serious cross-border incident into a NATO member country since the war in Ukraine began. But other alliance countries have reported similar incursions and drone crashes on their territory since 2022.

The overnight incident in Poland has been labelled an "act of aggression" and drew a military response by NATO in shooting down multiple drones, as several European leaders said they believed Moscow was intentionally escalating the war. But since Russia fully invaded Ukraine in 2022, Croatia and Romania, and non-NATO member Moldova — the latter two of which share long borders with Ukraine — have reported multiple airspace violations and have found drone fragments on their territory. Poland's experience is not the first time NATO airspace has been violated.

Romania found several drone crash sites on its territory in 2023l. That crash site finding followed several other similar incidents that left many Romanians near the border nervous that the war could spill over.

In February 2024, Moldova destroyed explosives discovered in a part of a Shahed drone that crashed on its territory in the southern town of Etulia. AP

Political turmoil greets new PM of France

PARIS

NEWLY-appointed French Prime Minister Sébastien Lecornu faced the threat of a no-confidence vote on the first day he took office, amid widespread protests across France on Wednesday.

Lecornu, who replaced his predecessor François Bayrou to become France's fourth prime minister in barely a year, has pledged to consult with all political forces and trade unions before forming his Cabinet. But his appointment was met with skepticism by French President Macron's political rivals. It also came as thousands of protesters rallied across France for a day of nationwide action against Macron's policies under the slogan "Block Everything."

Far-left party France Unbowed announced Wednesday it would submit a censure motion against the former defense minister if the next government does not call a vote of confidence when parliamentary work resumes next month. Legislators toppled Bayrou and his government in a confidence vote on Monday, opening a new political crisis for Europe's second-largest economy.

French politics have been in disarray since Macron called snap elections last year that produced a deeply fragmented legislature. Far-right and left-wing lawmakers hold over 320 seats at the National Assembly, while the centrists and allied conservatives hold 210.

Lecornu, a close ally of Macron, is faced with the task of addressing France's budget difficulties, He does not have a majority to support him and will need to find compromises to stay in power. Both the Socialists and Greens have expressed their disappointment at Lecornu's appointment, and Marine Le Pen, the far-right leader whose National Rally party leads opinion polls, mocked his nomination. She suggested that the move would end up with another failure for Macron, who has named seven prime ministers since he was elected in 2017. "The President is taking the final shot of Macronism, entrenched with his small circle of loyalists," Le Pen said, predicting that Macron would soon be forced to call new snap elections to break the deadlock.

After meeting with his predecessor as he took office, Lecornu said he wanted to tell the "French people that we will get there." AP

Tax incidence will not come down for sin goods

CBIC chief says biz facing inverted duty issue will be entitled to full ITC

PUSHPITA DEY @ New Delhi

THE overall tax incidence on sin items such as tobacco products and pan masala will not reduce, even if the GST on these products is brought down to 40% in the future.

Talking to TNIE, Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) chairman Sanjay Kumar Agarwal said the government would find a way to levy additional taxes on these products after GST rationalisation.

"Tax incidence should not come down on tobacco products because these are items with health implications, and the government does not want their consumption to rise," Agarwal said.

The government has clarified that pan masala, gutkha, cigarettes, chewing tobacco products such as zarda, unmanufactured tobacco, and bidis will continue to attract the existing GST and compensation cess rates until all loan and interest payment obligations under the compensation cess account are fully discharged. After that, the GST rate on these products would be reduced to 40%.Currently, tobacco products fall under the 28% GST slab, along with a cess ranging from 11% to 204%. As many states have raised concerns about revenue losses following the implementation of revised GST rates, Agarwal said the Centre may levy additional taxes on sin goods such as tobacco and pan masala to make up for the shortfall.

"There will be revenue implications of the rationalisation exercise, as GST on most items has come down. So, there is a negative impact on revenue, which we believe may be offset by higher consumption and industrial growth," Agarwal said.

With rate rationalisation approved by the GST Council, several states have sought an alternative mechanism to address revenue losses arising from reduced rates on a majority of goods and services. The CBIC chairman confirmed that the government will continue with rate rationalisation and other reforms even if the challenge of inverted duty structure persists for some products.

"Inverted duty structure will remain because when we do a rationalisation exercise, either we go by the principle of rate neutrality, remove the inverted duty structure, or decide the rates as per the merit of the item," he explained.

However, he assured that businesses facing inverted duty issues will be entitled to full input tax credit (ITC). "In case there is an accumulation of ITC, there is a provision for refunds, which are now being fast-tracked. For compliant taxpayers, 90% of the refund will be sanctioned on a provisional basis, identified by the system without officer intervention," Agarwal said.

Fitch ups India's growth outlook to 6.9%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FITCH Ratings has revised its growth forecast for India, raising its projection for the fiscal ending March 2026 (FY26) to 6.9%, up from the previous 6.5%. The upgrade comes after a stronger-than-expected economic performance in the second quarter of 2025, where real GDP growth accelerated to 7.8% year-on-year, surpassing Fitch's earlier forecast of 6.7%.

The key drivers behind this robust growth were a sharp acceleration in the service sector, which grew by 9.3% year-on-year, and strong consumption spending from both the private and public sectors. While the GDP deflator growth was at its lowest since 2019, suggesting a potential overstatement of real GDP, Fitch notes that positive indicators like strong PMI data and an increase in industrial output point to continued economic momentum.

Looking ahead, Fitch projects that domestic demand will be the primary engine of growth. Strong real income dynamics are expected to boost consumer spending, while looser financial conditions will stimulate investment. However, the rating agency anticipates a moderation in growth during the second half of the financial year. Consequently, it forecasts a slowdown to 6.3% in FY27 and a further edging down to 6.2% in FY28 as the economy operates slightly above its potential.

On the inflation front, a major drop in food prices pushed headline inflation down to 1.6% in July, the lowest since June 2017. Core inflation fell below 4% for the first time in six months. Fitch attributes the weak price pressures to an above-average monsoon season and high food stockpiles. It forecasts a gradual pick-up in inflation, reaching 3.2% by the end of 2025 and 4.1% by the end of 2026.

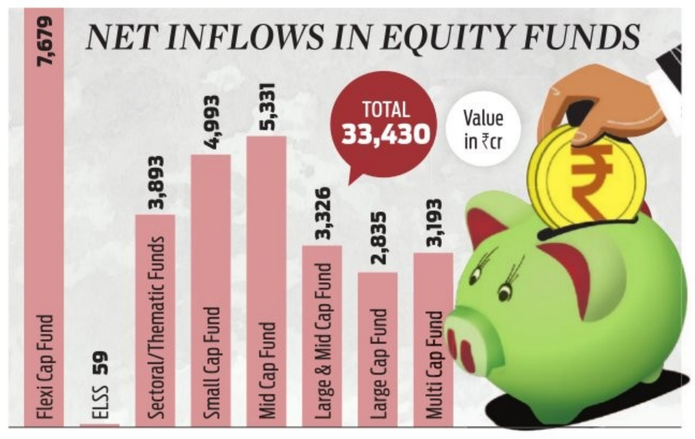
Despite low inflation, the Reserve Bank (RBI) is expected to exercise caution. Fitch predicts the central bank will implement a single 25 basis point rate cut towards the end of the year to assess impact of policy loosening. The agency expects rates to remain stable throughout 2026 before the RBI begins a rate-hiking cycle in 2027.

Urban Company IPO fully subscribed within hours

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INVESTORS have given a big cheer to the initial public offering (IPO) of Urban Company, as it got fully subscribed within hours of opening of bidding on Wednesday. The issue got a good response with 3.13 times bids. The ₹1,900 crore offer, which opened for subscription on Wednesday, saw robust demand from retail individual investors. The retail portion was subscribed 7 times, signalling strong confidence in the company's growth story and brand equity.

The overwhelming response from retail investors underscores the company's strong brand recognition and the public's belief in the formalisation of the home services market in India. The portion reserved for the company's employees was nearly fully subscribed six times over. Shares reserved for non-institutional investors got subscribed 4.16 times and those for qualified institutional buyers by 1.31 times. Ahead of the IPO, analysts had recommended a "subscribe" rating to the issue. Reports from brokerage firms highlighted Urban Company's "first-mover advantage," "full-stack, hyperlocal model," and its path to profitability as key strengths.



INFLOWS INTO EQUITY FUNDS DIP 22%; SIPs 1% IN AUG

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

THE mutual funds industry reported declining trends in net inflows in almost all categories, with the net inflows into equity schemes sharply declining 22% to ₹33,430 crore in August, down from ₹42,702 crore in July.

The systematic investment plans (SIPs) saw a marginal 1% decline in inflows, pulling down the overall industry assets under management (AUM) marginally to ₹75.18 lakh crore from ₹75.35 lakh crore in July and ₹74.41 lakh crore in June.

Fund managers say there is nothing to worry about as the July inflows were exceptionally high, rising over 80% month-on-month and setting an unusually elevated benchmark that was unlikely to be sustained. Also, after aggressive allocations in July, especially in sectoral and thematic funds, which recorded their highest-ever monthly inflows, some moderation in fresh investments was expected, they said.

August saw net equity inflows falling by 22% to ₹33,430 crore from ₹42,702.35 crore in July and ₹23,587 crore in June, as per the industry lobby Amfi data. On the other hand, SIP inflows were down to ₹28,265 crore in the month under review, a slight decline of 1% from July, yet asserting that SIPs remain a preferred investment route for retail investors. In July, inflows were the highest at ₹28,464 crore.

Due to the mark-to-market losses in equities, the industry's AUM also fell marginally to ₹75.18 lakh crore from ₹75.35 lakh crore in July and ₹74.41 lakh crore in June, Amfi said. A total of 23 schemes were launched in August, all open-ended and across categories, raising a total of ₹2,859 crore, compared to ₹30,416 crore raised by 30 new schemes in July.

On the debt side, open-ended funds reported net outflows of ₹7,980 crore, much lower than the ₹1,06,801 crore in July; hybrid funds fell to ₹15,293 crore from ₹20,879 crore; inflows into small-cap funds fell to ₹4,992 crore from ₹6,484 crore while those into large-cap funds rose to ₹2,834 crore from ₹2,125 crore and. Inflows into mid-cap schemes surged to ₹5,330 crore from ₹5,182 crore.

Inflows into multi-asset allocation funds nearly halved to ₹3,527 crore from ₹6,197 crore and arbitrage funds fell to ₹6,666 crore from ₹7,295 crore. Akhil Chaturvedi, executive director of Motilal Oswal Asset Management, said the lower impact of new flows in the previous month of roughly ₹9,000 crore is to the extent of NFOs, which were higher in July than August. Barring this, the inflow momentum is steady and healthy. On the surprise decline in SIPs, Chaturvedi said ,"Broadly, our investors continue to add equities to their allocation despite global headwinds and FPI selling, and this is very positive for the markets."

Sebi notifies ESOP rules for start-ups, simplified disclosure docs for InvITs

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

CAPITAL markets regulator Sebi has notified several key amendments to further ease of doing business operations and protect investor interests.

These changes, approved in June, cover rules for share-based employee benefits, delisting of public sector undertakings, and disclosures for investment trusts and portfolio managers.

In a major move for start-ups, Sebi on Wednesday allowed the founders classified as promoters to retain and exercise employee stock options (Esops) granted at least one year before filing for an IPO. This reverses a previous rule that required promoters to liquidate such benefits, offering significant relief, especially for companies undertaking reverse flipping by way of shifting their legal domicile back to the country.

Sebi has also introduced special delisting measures for public sector undertakings (PSUs) where the government holds 90% or more stakes. These include relaxed requirements for public shareholder approval and a fixed-price offer at a minimum 15% premium over the floor price, aiming to streamline the exit process for these companies.

For both portfolio managers and privately placed infrastructure investment trusts (InvITs), Sebi has simplified disclosure documents and aligned the minimum investment lots with secondary market rules. Portfolio managers can now use a simplified disclosure document, while the minimum investment for Invits has been uniformly set at ₹25 lakh, harmonising primary and secondary market rules.

Funskool in advance talks with Mattel for contract manufacturing

SANAL SUDEVAN @ Chennai

INDIA'S biggest toy manufacturer, Chennai-based Funskool, is in advanced stage of discussions with Mattel Inc.—makers of Hot Wheels, Barbie dolls, and Jurassic World toys—for producing the latter's products at its Goa plants.

Speaking to TNIE, Funskool CEO KA Shabir said except for Mattel, all other US toy brands have halted production orders due to US tariffs. He added that orders from US customers have slowed significantly after the tariff announcement. The current tariff on toys stands at 50%. Shabir said: "The real impact (of US tariffs) will show in 2026. The tariffs are stalling the growth momentum of the toy industry just when global brands began investing in India. With the US being the world's largest toy market, such high tariffs make sourcing from India unworkable, pushing business to Southeast Asian countries."

On growth plans and current operations, Shabir said the first two quarters of FY26 indicated that the company was on track to achieve its target of 30% export growth. "But the imposition of tariffs has dampened our export growth expectations. Till September, exports are expected to grow only around 20–22%," he noted.

The company has set an overall growth target of 15%, driven by exports. "With 40% of our business linked to the US, the tariffs are a serious setback. The US business cannot be replaced overnight—the scale is unmatched. This will delay our growth plans, not only for Funskool but for India's toy industry as a whole," Shabir said.

Funskool has put on hold the expansion of its Ranipet plant due to order cancellations, though expansion at its Goa plant is progressing as scheduled. The Goa facility is expected to operate at full capacity by the third quarter of FY26. Together, the two plants generate $50–55 million in revenue.

"For the past four to five months, we have been working on new projects slated for delivery next year. However, everything has been put on hold for now. Our customers may inform us about new orders in the next two to three weeks," Shabir said. Currently, 33% of Funskool's products are consumed locally, 27% are exported to the US, and 35% to Europe, including the UK. Globally, the company has tied up with global brands such as Spin Master (Canada), Moose (Australia), Melissa & Doug (US), ELC and Flair (UK), and most recently, Buffalo Games. Every year, Funskool launches 60–70 products across multiple categories.

On GST rate rationalisation, Shabir said: "The GST on non-electronic products has come down from 12% to 5%, but the toy industry is seeking clarity on electronic toys."

iPhone 17 Air likely to face tough competition from Pro models

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

APPLE'S newly-launched iPhone 17 Air, the slimmest iPhone, may not receive the same response as its Pro models in India, according to industry experts.

While consumers may appreciate the Air's design, its pricing is close to the Pro lineup, which could drive Indian buyers toward Pro variants instead. At its annual launch event on Tuesday, Apple unveiled the iPhone 17 lineup — comprising iPhone 17, iPhone 17 Pro, iPhone 17 Pro Max, and iPhone 17 Air. iPhone 17 Air replaces the earlier Plus model with a sleek, ultra-thin design.

"We think the base model still performs well in India, so that they will continue to do well in the iPhone 17 series. However, the percentage of Pro model adoption is increasing year-on-year. For the iPhone 17 Air, it might be a tough sell because it sits just below the Pro model, which now has a very strong camera setup. So, it really depends on what users prioritise: design or camera performance," said Tarun Pathak, research director at Counterpoint Research.

Pathak added that India remains a strong growth market for Apple, and he estimated that Apple could achieve double-digit growth in shipments or sales in India, where it currently holds about a 7% volume share and a 23% value share.

The iPhone 17 starts at ₹82,900, iPhone 17 Air at ₹1,19,900, while the Pro and Pro Max are priced at ₹1,34,900 and ₹1,49,900, respectively. Faisal Kawoosa, founder of TechARC, noted that while the iPhone 17 Air adds novelty with its form factor, slim phones are not new in the market. "Android OEMs like Samsung, Tecno, and Redmi have already created excitement around slim phones."

Hewitt suspended for 2 weeks for pushing official

Two-time Grand Slam champion Lleyton Hewitt has been suspended for two weeks for pushing an anti-doping official. PERFECT START FOR MEN IN BLUE

Kuldeep, Dube shine with the ball as India dominate against UAE with a 9-wicket win

GOMESH S @ Chennai

IT might not have been much of a contest, but as soon as India captain Suryakumar Yadav won the toss and opted to bowl against United Arab Emirates in their first match of the Asia Cup, the team sheet gave a glimpse of how this management wants to operate. What followed in the next couple of hours or so only added more to it as India dismissed UAE for 57 before chasing down the target with nine wickets in hand.

Contrary to what was expected and understood in the lead up to the game, Sanju Samson started in the playing XI ahead of Jitesh Sharma but was slotted to bat at No 5. If that was a googly no one anticipated, India went on to play only two seamers in Jasprit Bumrah and Hardik Pandya with Shivam Dube as an additional option. It meant Rinku Singh and Arshdeep Singh sat out with Kuldeep Yadav playing for India for the first time since the Champions Trophy final against New Zealand in February.

This template of having eight batters and multiple bowling options is something that was expected from the Men in Blue. And how things panned, despite the quality of the opposition, could just be the indication of the way the pitch behaved at the Dubai International Stadium on Wednesday. It took just an over of Pandya to realise the need to bring on spin from one end and Yadav did just that. Bumrah continued from the other end and even delivered a pin point yorker just to remind that he is still the best all-format pacer in the world before spinners took over.

Varun Chakravarthy started with a floaty delivery to deceive Muhammad Zohaib, and Kuldeep piled on. In a single over, the wrist spinner removed Rahul Chopra, Muhammad Waseem and Harshit Kaushik — reducing UAE to 50/5 after nine overs. It was a blow UAE never really recovered from. First one was a tossed up delivery outside off, the second, much flatter, to trap Waseem before a googly that rattled the stumps. For someone who had waited several months to take the field for India, that one over might have given the confidence he needs to move forward.

If Kuldeep, who has consistently missed out because of team combination and batting depth, coming off augurs well for the wrist spinner, the team management will take heart from the way Dube performed. Head coach Gautam Gambhir's preference for batting depth is well established and to an extent, understandable in this format. If India were to bring in an extra bowler, it would mean they have at least four tailenders in a T20I playing XI.

Which is where, Dube comes in. Despite his limited bowling over the last year or so at the highest level, the left-hander (another template of this management) was preferred ahead of Rinku. He bowled a fair bit in the lead up to the tournament and it bore fruit as the Mumbai all-rounder took three wickets. Though at least two of them were off the tail, Dube did what was asked of him. It will only give the team management confidence to retain him in the playing XI based on the combination they field against Pakistan on Sunday.

As far as batting goes, Shubman Gill opened with Abhishek Sharma as expected with skipper Suryakumar Yadav coming in at No 3. The southpaw smashed a 16-ball 30 before the other two completed the chase in 4.3 overs which was a mere formality. First box is now checked. Bigger challenge awaits. Brief scores: UAE 57 in 13.1 ovs (Kuldeep 4/7, Dube 3/4) lost to India 60/1 in 4.3 ovs (Abhishek 30, Gill 20 n.o).

Once he didn't know Oman, Samay is now their lynchpin

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

SAMAY Shrivastava was already 28 when he decided to shift to Oman and pursue his cricketing dream in the country. More importantly, a leg-break bowler and also a handy right-hand batter from Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh didn't even know that Oman was a country when his childhood coach Jyoti Prakash Tyagi suggested him the move.

It took coach Tyagi around two years to convince the cricketer and his family but once Samay moved to the gulf country in 2019 there was no looking back. He made his international debut in 2022 after playing in the domestic circuit for three years and would be up against the country of his birth when Oman take on the mighty India in the ongoing Asia Cup on September 19 in Abu Dhabi.

"Firstly I really didn't know that there is a country named Oman when Jyoti sir advised me to shift my base and then my family was worried as I was planning to move to a gulf country," Samay told this daily ahead of his team's match against Pakistan on Friday. Khimji Ramdas, a leading business group in Oman, wanted talented cricketers for their team and Tyagi, who runs Ankur Cricket Academy in Bhopal, sent them videos of Samay. "Tyagi sir's friend Manjul Ahmad contacted him and he suggested my name. I first got a three-month visiting visa and once I impressed them with my cricketing skills, I got the work visa. I played domestic cricket there for three years as that was the requisite to gain eligibility to play the national team and made my international debut in November 2022 against Saudi Arabia in a T20I. All my inhibitions disappeared once I started playing cricket in Oman as they really have nice facilities and extend all cooperation to cricketers. Manju bhai (Manjul Ahmad) made sure I felt at home there and he still acts as a guiding figure to me," recalled Samay.

Samay Shrivastava | SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

It was his father late Rajkumar Shrivastava, who wanted Samay to play for India. However, he passed away in 2013 after fighting a long battle against cancer. Samay was playing division matches in Gwalior when his father left for the heavenly abode. "If I remember correctly, I was vice captain of the West Zone team in the Vizzy Trophy and had to leave for Mumbai in a few days. I decided to skip the event after my dad's demise but my mother Rekha Shrivastava, Tyagi sir and uncle convinced me to play in the tournament saying that my father would have never wanted me to skip any tournament."

Samay played for Oman against India A in the 2024 ACC Men's T20 Emerging Teams Asia Cup but the ongoing continental event will be his first against the senior team. "Playing against such world class players will definitely put some pressure on me but it will also give me some additional motivation to perform and prove my credentials. Maybe by doing that I can prove something to those who did not trust my abilities when I was struggling in Madhya Pradesh," said the 34-year-old bowling all-rounder.

While playing for his state in age group competitions, Samay had played against the incumbent India captain Suryakumar Yadav. "We went to Mumbai for practice matches and I remember Surya was in the opposite camp then. I had also played against Kuldeep Yadav. In the Emerging Teams Asia Cup last year, we played against India that had Tilak Varma and Abhishek Sharma. I would like to give my 200 per cent playing against the T20 world champions." Meanwhile, coach Tyagi is happy that his ward is finally getting an opportunity to play against India. "He once dreamt of playing for India but unfortunately couldn't achieve it. He hopefully gets to play against them now," said the coach.

Duleep Trophy: Central and South fight for glory

AGENCIES @ Bengaluru

Central Zone captain Rajat Patidar

A CLUTCH of young prospects such as Ravichandran Smaran and Danish Malewar will be eager to enter the selectors' thinking arc during the Duleep Trophy final between South Zone and Central Zone, starting here from Thursday.

The absence of some familiar stars, except Central skipper Rajat Patidar, owing to their India A duty against Australia A might have given the match a barren look. But it is equally exciting to watch some next-Gen talents trying to push their cases to gain higher acclaim after making a blazing start to their respective domestic careers during the 2024-25 season.

None has been more impressive in that group than Smaran, whose seven first-class appearances for Karnataka have yielded 516 runs at an average of 64.50 with two hundreds. His records in List A and T20s are impressive too ' 433 runs from 10 matches at an average of 72.16 in 50-over matches and holding a strike-rate of 170 in six T20s. Those numbers underline his all-format prowess, and the 22-year-old left-hander would certainly want to build on it in front of national selectors at the BCCI Centre of Excellence grounds. On the other hand, Central's Malewar has already made an impression in the Duleep Trophy, scripting 203 and 76 in the quarterfinals and semifinals respectively. In fact, the 21-year-old Vidarbha batter has so far made 1077 runs from a mere 11 first-class matches averaging 59 with three hundreds. All these first-season wonders will be keen to build on their early success in the upcoming domestic season. Squads: Central: Patidar (c), Pandey, Malewar, Shubham, Sanchit, Yash, Nachiket, Kumar, Aditya, Upendra (wk), Ajay, Akshay (wk), Deepak, Kuldeep, Saransh; South: Azharuddeen (c and wk), Ricky (v-c), Smaran, Kale M, Rasheed, Tanmay, Salman, Andre, Tanay, Gurjapneet, Nidheesh, Koushik, Ankit, T Vijay, Basil NP.

Boxer Nupur building on family's rich legacy

ANMOL GURUNG @ Chennai

Nupur Sheoran (L) became the first from India to confirm a medal in the ongoing World C'ships on Wednesday | BFI

BOXING is in her blood and she packs a heavy punch. Nupur Sheoran is in the process of building her family's rich legacy. Granddaughter of legendary pugilist, captain Hawa Singh, one of country's first icons in the combat sport, the 26-year-old grinded out a fighting victory to become the first from India to secure a medal at the ongoing World Boxing Championships at the M&S Bank Arena in Liverpool on Wednesday.

Her father Sanjay Kumar, who is also a former certified boxer, is filled with pride. Moreover, her mother is also a former basketball player. Sanjay is stoked to witness his daughter carry on the family's legacy. "Her grandfather was a great boxer, Asian gold medallist, I was an Asian medallist and now my daughter is now a Worlds medallist. It can't get better than this," Sanjay, who manages the Captain Hawa Singh Boxing Academy in Bhiwani, told this daily.

Taking nothing away from Nupur's medal-winning output, it has to be noted that this was her first fight in the ongoing marquee competition and the luck of the draw was clearly on her side. This could be possible because the +80kg category is not part of the 2028 LA Olympics programme. But the Railways pugilist still had to slog hard to get the W on the day while facing Oltinoy Sotimboeva of Uzbekistan in the +80kg women's last-eight fight. Moreover, Nupur had exhibited her promise during the second stage of the World Cup in Astana not so long ago by capturing the gold medal.

Coming from a rich sporting background can also have its drawbacks. People, in general, expect them to be extra special and the weight of expectations can be overpowering. Sanjay, a former multiple national champ, would have felt that first-hand and he does not want his daughter to suffer. Sanjay said that Nupur was calm ahead of the marquee event. "She was saying 'Papa, koi tension nahi hai (father, I'm not carrying any stress). I'll do well'. We, as parents, tend to take a lot of stress. But I try to refrain from doing that. I had just asked her to express herself inside the ring and come back with a victory."

Inside the ring on the day, it was predominantly a messy affair with the referee intervening play due to clinching on numerous occasions. Against a slightly taller rival, Nupur was looking to land overhand punches albeit unsuccessfully. But in the midst of chaos (the Indian also fell on the floor due to push), Nupur did manage to sneak in some point-scoring blows. That reflected in the judges' scorecard as Nupur won the round 4-1.

Behind on points, the Uzbek boxer was displaying more urgency and was swinging hard. But so was Nupur, in bid to keep her opponent at bay. There was plenty of coming together once again with Nupur once again falling flat on the floor towards the closing stages. But this time it was Sotimboeva who got the votes from three judges, making the tie interesting. Going into the final three-minute round, four judges had the two all square while one had handed a slight advantage to Nupur. The final round had some form of drama.

JAISMINE BLOOMS, NIKHAT BOWS OUT

Later, Jaismine Lamboria (women's 57kg) put up a boxing clinic to follow the footsteps of Nupur. Having secured the semifinal ticket in the process, she'll now return with at least a bronze medal. She was too good for Khumorabonu Mamajonova of Uzbekistan on the day and won by 5-0 verdict. However, former two-time champ Nikhat Zareen missed out on a medal after going down to two-time Olympic medallist Buse Naz Cakiroglu of Turkey in the women's 51kg quarterfinals.

WORLD CUP QUALIFIERS

England thrash Serbia, high five for Haaland & Norway

AGENCIES @ Paris

ENGLAND sent out a warning to their World Cup rivals with a brilliant 5-0 thrashing of Serbia in qualifying on Tuesday, while Erling Haaland scored five as Norway emphatically maintained their 100-percent record.

Elsewhere in Europe, Portugal and France overturned deficits to make it back-to-back wins to open their bids to reach next year's tournament in the United States, Mexico and Canada. The quality of Thomas Tuchel's England was questioned after a laborious 2-0 win over Andorra at Villa Park on Saturday, but they produced a resounding answer. "The players did excellent. The credit goes to them, they did amazing. That's the bar," manager Tuchel told ITV Sport.

England dominated the early stages in Belgrade and took the lead in the 33rd minute when Harry Kane headed home his 74th international goal from a Declan Rice corner.

The visitors doubled their advantage two minutes later, as Noni Madueke raced onto an excellent flick-on from Morgan Rogers, kept his composure and dinked the ball beyond Serbia goalkeeper Djordje Petrovic. Seven minutes into the second half, Ezri Konsa pounced on a loose ball after a free-kick to score his first international goal.

Another Rice set-piece provided England's fourth, as Marc Guehi slid to meet his free-kick, given for the foul on Kane by Nikola Milenkovic which earned the Nottingham Forest centre-back a straight red card. Substitute Marcus Rashford rounded off a perfect night for his team with a late spot-kick.

Meanwhile, Norway produced the perfect response to second-placed Italy's dramatic 5-4 victory over Israel on Monday with a 11-1 thumping of Moldova to make it five wins from five in Group I.

Haaland was the star of the show, scoring a first-half hat-trick before nodding in his fourth goal not long after the restart.

Martin Odegaard grabbed a goal and two assists. Felix Myhre found the net early on after being picked out by Haaland.

Rangers midfielder Thelo Aasgaard came off the bench to add a seventh, although Moldova did grab themselves a consolation with a Leo Ostigard own goal, only for Aasgaard to score again.

Haaland stepped aside when Norway were awarded a penalty shortly afterwards, allowing the 23-year-old Aasgaard to complete an 11-minute hat-trick. There were further goals for Haaland and Aasgaard as Moldova crumbled.

Norway, who downed four-time world champions Italy earlier in qualifying and are bidding to qualify for a first World Cup since 1998, moved six points clear of the Azzurri having played a game more.

Results (Euro 2026 WC qualifying results | Tuesday): Azerbaijan 1-1 Ukraine; France 2-1 Iceland ; Armenia 2-1 Ireland; Hungary 2-3 Portugal; Cyprus 2-2 Romania; Bosnia and Herzegovina 1-2 Austria; Norway 11-1 Moldova; Serbia 0-5 England; Albania 1-0 Latvia.

WORLD Tourism Day, marked each year on September 27, is more than just a date on the calendar. It is a global reminder of the immense social, cultural, political and economic impact of tourism. The United Nations World Tourism Organisation (UNWTO) inaugurated the occasion to honour the adoption of its statutes on September 27 1970 — a moment widely regarded as a turning point in international tourism.

For 2025, the theme — Tourism and Sustainable Transformation — casts the spotlight on the industry's ability to drive meaningful change. It underlines tourism's potential to foster sustainable practices, nurture equitable growth and uphold environmental responsibility. This year's official celebrations will unfold in Melaka, Malaysia. Now, rather than simply compiling destinations that echo the theme, we thought: why not immerse ourselves in the very city chosen as the stage for this year's commemorations?

Melaka, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a living tapestry of history and culture. Once a flourishing trading port, the city still carries the imprint of its colonial past and multicultural heritage. As the host of World Tourism Day 2025, Melaka is reimagining its tourism model in sync with the ideals of sustainability and transformation. So, if you are curious to experience the city where history, culture and innovation converge, here is your guide to the unmissable sights of Melaka.

We begin with the Melaka River, which has been a focal point of a major revitalisation project that transformed a previously polluted waterway into a clean, well-lit tourist attraction. A must-do here is a scenic river cruise, which passes by historic sites, colourful street art and traditional villages like Kampung Morten, offering a new perspective on the city. Jonker Street forms the heart of Melaka's Chinatown. This vibrant street is famous for its antique shops, cafés and a bustling night market on weekends. It is a prime example of cultural preservation and local economic benefit, as it showcases local crafts and food, directly supporting small businesses and artisans.

The city is a living museum of colonial architecture. Key sights such as The Stadthuys is one of the oldest Dutch buildings in Southeast Asia, with its distinctive red façade. A Famosa (Porta de Santiago) is the remnants of a 16th-century Portuguese fortress and St Paul's Hill is a historic site with the ruins of a church offering panoramic views of the city and the Strait of Malacca.

Melaka's unique fusion of Malay, Chinese and Indian cultures is evident in its temples and museums. Stop by Cheng Hoon Teng Temple, the oldest functioning Chinese temple in Malaysia and also Baba Nyonya Heritage Museum, which is a beautifully preserved townhouse showcasing the unique Peranakan culture.

For those interested in nature, the Melaka Butterfly and Reptile Sanctuary, spread across an 11-acre nature facility in Ayer Keroh, is known for its extensive collection of butterflies and reptiles. The sanctuary is also known as Taman Rama-Rama dan Reptilia Malacca. Another highlight is the Melaka Marine Park, which is a key part of the state's conservation efforts, offering opportunities for snorkelling and diving with a focus on coral reef protection.

Melaka's efforts to host World Tourism Day are a direct reflection of its commitment to this theme. The city's strategy revolves around preserving its heritage while promoting economic and environmental sustainability. The city's tourism model is designed to channel benefits directly to the community. By promoting cultural markets and local businesses, Melaka ensures that tourism revenue supports the livelihoods of its residents.

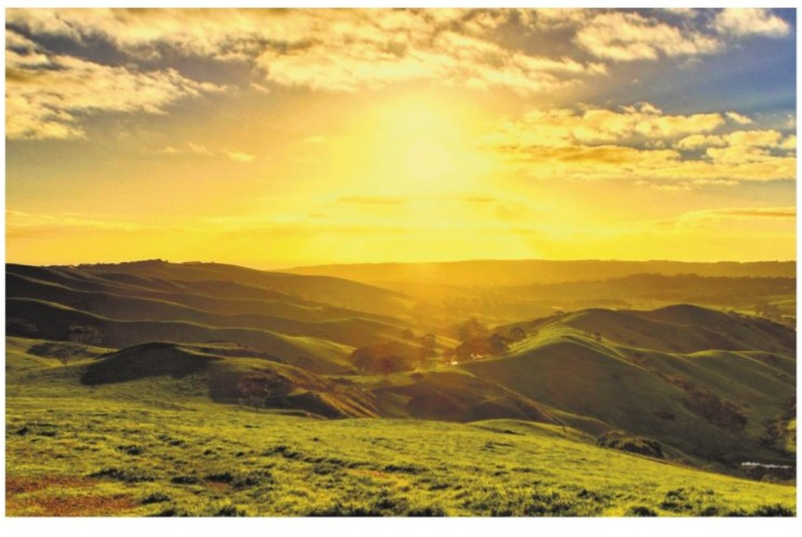
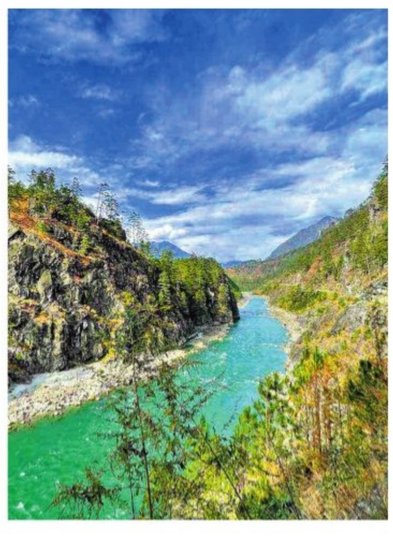
Arunachal Pradesh to host first-ever Sun Rise Festival in Dong village

Come December, this New Year's five-day festival aims to boost tourism, offering visitors a blend of adventure, nature and cultural experiences...

SRUSHTI KULKARNI





ARUNACHAL Pradesh will host its first-ever Sun Rise Festival in Dong village from December 29 to January 2. The five-day festival aims to boost tourism, offering visitors a blend of adventure, nature and cultural experiences. The festival will take place in Dong, a small village in the Anjaw district of Arunachal Pradesh, which is famous for being the easternmost inhabited village in India.

Located at an altitude of 1,240 meters, Dong is the first place in the country to receive the sun's rays each morning. The Indian Science Congress officially identified it as the first point of sunrise in India back in 1999. Its unique geographical position, at the tri-junction of India, China and Myanmar, makes it a prime destination for tourists and nature enthusiasts.

The festival is designed to provide an immersive experience, blending local culture with adventure activities. Visitors can trek to Dong Peak before dawn to witness the first sunrise of the new year, a key highlight of the event. The festival will feature traditional dances and music from local tribes like the Meyor and Mishmi communities. Attendees can taste traditional delicacies, including local dishes like thukpa and lukter (dried meat with chilli flakes), along with apong (a fermented rice beer). A bazaar will showcase handwoven shawls, bamboo baskets and other handicrafts from local artisans, promoting sustainable livelihoods. The event will also offer various adventure sports and camping opportunities. The festival was officially announced by Arunachal Pradesh chief minister Pema Khandu on the social media platform X (formerly Twitter). The festival is not just a celebration but also an effort to promote eco-tourism. Events will include workshops on sustainable travel, waste management and community-led conservation. This is a way to ensure that tourism benefits the local community and is environmentally responsible.

A curated guide to happenings in Ooru

It's about cinematic liberty

There are stereotypes about Pune and Delhi, too, but that doesn't mean filmmakers shouldn't use that context in cinema. It's just one scene where a police officer (played by Sandy Master) talks like that, with the character being shown as misogynistic. As for the parties, they happen all over the country. So if someone's making a big deal about Bengaluru being shown in a bad light, they really just need to relax and let it go.

– Samarth Shivapur, sales head

Reductive representation

People from all professions, artists, students, and entrepreneurs contribute to the city's authenticity. Movies that only represent locals as criminals and sensationalise violence disregard this reality. What is more concerning is the demeaning portrayal of women, which strengthens stereotypes and harms the lives of many women who are shaping Bengaluru's future. Cinema holds immense power to shape perceptions, especially for audiences unfamiliar with the city. I hope directors start showing the real Bengaluru, not just the dramatic parts. We deserve to be seen in full.

– R Sivasudar, UG student

City of youthful energy

For me, Bengaluru is the city of youth, diversity, and opportunities. People from different cultures and ideas come together here, and Bengaluru has always welcomed them with open arms. Young people often find more freedom here than they had under traditional norms back home. The city gives them the space to explore their individuality and aspirations. That's why it feels unfair when films reduce the city's identity to stereotypes like drugs or paint its women in a demeaning way. I wish filmmakers would also highlight Bengaluru's spirit of inclusivity and youthful energy.

– Sreejith Palliyil, travel designer

ACKNOWLEDGING THE FALLOUT

The makers of Lokah tendered an apology after facing backlash. Kannada activist Rupesh Rajanna was a vocal critic, demanding not only a public apology but also edits to the film. The issue even drew the attention of Bengaluru police commissioner Seemant Kumar Singh, who stated that the Central Crime Branch's social media monitoring cell would review the matter and take necessary action if violations were found. Dulquer Salman's Wayfarer Films, which produced the movie, released a statement expressing regret and assuring audiences that the dialogue would be removed or edited.

THE 'REEL' BENGALURU?

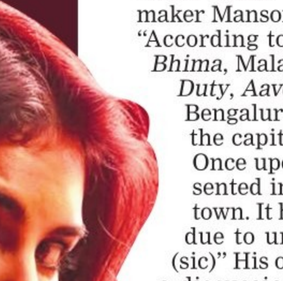
Recently released hit film Lokah Chapter 1: Chandra has courted controversy for its negative portrayal of Bengaluru and dialogues insensitive to women. Bengalureans weigh in

SRUTHI HEMACHANDRAN, ANJALI RAM

BENGALURU, once celebrated in cinema for its gardens, heritage and position as a crossroads of cultures, is finding itself cast in a markedly different light. The city, long associated with technology and opportunity, is increasingly being represented as a 'drug capital'. The latest Malayalam film Lokah Chapter 1: Chandra, that has reportedly crossed ₹202 crore at the box office (as of Wednesday), drawing large audiences, extends this trend, joining titles such as Bheema, Officer on Duty and Aavesham in foregrounding narratives of crime, narcotics and moral decline. Controversy also surrounded specific dialogues in the film which used derogatory language towards Bengaluru women and a scene where a police officer shamed a female character who was being followed by goons while outside at night.

The shift in cinematic portrayal recently prompted a response from National Award-winning Kannada filmmaker Mansore, who remarked on X: "According to movies like Kannada Bhima, Malayalam films Officer on Duty, Aavesham, and now Lokah, Bengaluru is being portrayed as the capital of drugs and crime. Once upon a time, it was represented in movies as a beautiful town. It has come to such a state due to uncontrolled migration (sic)" His observation has sparked a discussion about whether filmmakers are engaging with researched realities or resorting to convenient stereotypes for dramatic effect.

While Bengalureans argue that cinema reflects uncomfortable truths about urban life, others caution that repeated depictions risk reducing complex identities to reductive images, amplifying stigma and overshadowing the city's diversity.



Be careful with broad statements

The misogyny of the character is made clear in a lot of dialogues including when he asks another character: 'Aren't you ashamed of getting beaten up by a girl?' There are people like him in society, and art is often a reflection of real life. Portraying it as closely as possible may be the only way to revolt, for the artiste. But yes, people clearly get influenced by movies, even if some dialogues are not glorified, they can be interpreted differently. All it needs is a reel with a 'mass' BGM. Narratives can flip, influence can spread in unimaginable ways. It was a noble thing to apologise, because often impact is more important than the intent. We could logically argue that it's a movie and we shouldn't take it personally, but that logic might not work in this day and age when we are bombarded by content everywhere and might not have the breathing space to sit and think. While I personally don't think of it as an issue, makers have to be more careful when making umbrella statements through movie dialogues, or at least quickly counter it

– Anand Mahadevan, developer

Not glorifying misogyny

Films are allowed to show us flawed people as well because, let's face it, they exist in our society. The cop character's dialogue gives us a glimpse into his filthy mindset and makes his ugliness clear. At no point does the film glorify or endorse the demeaning line about women. This line doesn't invite applause but disgust. It's not a celebration of prejudice but a sharp reminder of how judgmental attitudes sound when exposed on screen. When it comes to representation of the city, I think most Malayalam films set in Bengaluru capture a side of the city that young people can relate to. Be it with Lokah or other films like Dear Friend and Romancham – it's all about living independently with friends, figuring out careers, and relationships, not a judgmental caricature.

– Anjali R Pillai, film content creator

Wrong portrayal of Bengaluru cops

Firstly, the cop character's name is Nachiyappa Gowda. Gowdas are a community in Karnataka, but the role is played by Sandy Master, who is a Tamilian. They could have considered a local Kannada actor so that it would have done justice. The dialogue delivered by the cop shaming women in Bengaluru was uncalled for. It is a negative narrative about Bengaluru cops as well. The portrayal of the city is one-sided because yes, there are many pubs but that is just one part of the city; Bengaluru has its own rich culture. This portrayal will affect Bengalureans who are living here and the perception of non-Bengalureans who come to visit our city. Not everyone is mature enough to see it in a cinematic manner. – RJ Anoopa, actor

"The most important thing is to ask -- even the simplest of questions. If you can teach someone, you are already miles ahead," he said, adding, "Dream as if there's no tomorrow. If you have a dream, begin today. The world is changing fast, and only those who stay alert and proactive will have the edge."

Satya Lanka delivered an engaging address blending reality checks with inspiration. He spoke about the game-changing nature of university life, remarking that in four years students will not only gain knowledge but also build friendships that last a lifetime. Highlighting the value of collaboration, he noted that group projects often feel like 90% therapy but prepare students for teamwork and critical thinking. Stressing the importance of resilience, he said, "Failure is never the end -- it is the roadmap to success and the story of your journey as an engineer."

Presiding over the function, Dr. P. Shyama Raju, Chancellor of REVA University, reiterated the institution's mission of creating a holistic ecosystem that nurtures academic excellence and personal growth. "Education at REVA is a joint effort -- students, parents, and teachers working together systematically. My role is to provide an entrepreneurial ecosystem," he said. He also underlined REVA's guiding philosophy of Educate to Enterprise, calling it not just a slogan but a strategic commitment. "I want every student of REVA to emerge as a job provider by the time they graduate. Our responsibility is to instil an entrepreneurial spirit that fuels nation-building and aligns with the vision of an Atmanirbhar Bharat," he added.

The inauguration marked the beginning of a journey for the new batch, with the coming days curated to help students settle into university life while exploring their chosen programmes, campus culture, and the diverse opportunities for academic, professional, and personal development. The event was attended by Dr. Sanjay R. Chitnis, Vice Chancellor; Dr. R. C. Biradar, Pro Vice Chancellor, Dr. K. S. Narayanaswamy, Registrar; Dr. Beena G, Registrar (Evaluation); faculty members, students, and parents.

PRE-WORKOUT NUTRITION: WHAT TO EAT BEFORE YOU HIT THE GYM

The quality of your workout depends on more than just your training plan and consistency. While warmups and rest are important, one often overlooked factor is what you eat before your workout. The right fuel can boost performance, while the wrong choices may leave you sluggish or uncomfortable.

WHY PRE-WORKOUT NUTRITION MATTERS

- Provides steady energy and delays fatigue
- Prevents sudden drops in blood sugar
- Reduces muscle damage and improves recovery
- Helps you exercise longer and at higher intensity

A good pre-workout meal should be easy to digest, low in fat, moderate in protein, and rich in complex carbs. Ideally, consume it45-60 minutes before exercising.

FOODS TO EAT BEFORE A WORKOUT

- Bananas and other fruits: High in carbohydrates and potassium, bananas prevent cramps and boost energy. Apples, pears, and berries are also quick, light options.
- Greek yogurt with fruit: A mix of protein and carbs, this snack delivers sustained energy and keeps hunger at bay.
- Oats: Best consumed at least an hour before training, oats provide slow-releasing carbs that fuel longer workouts.
- Peanut butter on whole wheat bread: A protein-packed option that balances carbs and healthy fats. Stick to natural peanut butter with minimal sugar.
- Dry fruits: Almonds, walnuts, dried cranberries, and apricots are convenient, nutrient-dense options that keep you fueled.
- Cereal with skim milk: Choose a low-sugar, low-fat cereal with less than 3g of fiber and fat per serving. Add fruit for extra energy.
- Protein bars: Quick and effective, provided they are free of added sugars. Check labels carefully.
- Protein shakes: Boost muscle protein synthesis when consumed about 30 minutes before your workout. Leave more time if you have a sensitive stomach.
- Eggs: Rich in protein and healthy fats. Best eaten 1-2 hours before exercise to avoid cramps.
- Coffee or caffeine: A cup of black coffee can enhance calorie burn, focus, and endurance. Avoid late in the evening to prevent sleep disruption.
- Creatine and supplements: Creatine aids short, high-intensity workouts, while beta-alanine reduces fatigue and BCAAs support muscle growth.

FOODS TO AVOID BEFORE A WORKOUT

- Beans: Fibre-heavy and may cause discomfort.
- Cruciferous vegetables: Broccoli, cabbage, and bok choy can lead to bloating.
- Fried foods: High in fat, slow to digest, and likely to cause cramps.
- Carbonated drinks: Causes gas and bloating, even if sugar-free.

OLIVES FOR SKIN CARE

Olive oil can be a rich resource to heal and enrich skin and hair

BACK TO NATURE

SUPARNA TRIKHA
The columnist is a beauty and nature care expert

WHEN you think of olives, you think of Greek gods, nectar, aphrodisiacs and everything exotic! No doubt that olives have been eaten for years now, and their health benefits are very well known. They have antioxidants that prevent heart attacks, strokes and plaque build-up; are known to lower blood pressure; have anti-cancerous properties; and shown to reduce bone loss.

For the skin, olive oil has shown results in treating damaged skin and improving and maintaining day-to-day skin. Olive oil is also fabulous for hair as it reduces frizz, rids the scalp of dandruff, and helps grow thicker hair!

Let's get a little deeper into the benefits of olive oil.

Olive oil for skincare

Wrinkles and age spots: Due to its high content of polyphenolic compounds, olive oil helps reduce oxidative stress caused by ageing and wrinkling. With a regular olive oil massage, you can improve elasticity, reduce wrinkles and dark spots and make your skin look younger.

Complexion: Olive oil helps improve complexion and clear dull-looking skin by eliminating toxins from the skin's surface and stimulating circulation; this boosts overall quality of the skin and helps maintain an even-toned skin.

Olive oil for dryness: Due to its high contents of Vitamin E and A, olive oil makes a super moisturiser and reduces dryness and dehydrated skin. It helps maintain the skin's oil balance and makes it look healthier.

After-sun protection: Being a heavy oil and having antioxidants that help protect the skin against sun damage, this is one of the best oils if your skin is suffering from sun damage and especially if you are a swimmer or spend a lot of time outdoors. Massage olive oil into the skin, forming a light film on the surface. Let your skin absorb this.

Itchy skin: Olive oil is relaxing and soothing, and helps with itchiness. You can use it safely to treat rashes and due to its antibacterial qualities, it can play down angry, irritable skin conditions in no time at all!

Aftershave soother: Olive oil makes for a great aftershave soother as the skin can feel harsh and bumpy. Once you have washed your skin, apply a little onto wet skin and massage gently, allowing it to be absorbed completely.

For hair care

Reduces scalp infections: As it has remarkable anti-bacterial qualities, an olive oil massage is excellent for people who are suffering from scalp disorders and dandruff. A bi-weekly massage with olive oil can work wonders for treating this hair condition.

Conditioning effect: Olive oil has the rare quality of providing a conditioning effect, which not only makes your hair look healthier but also acts as frizz control. For those with rough, unruly locks, olive oil will help improve hair texture.

Hair softener

Olive oil has three major emollients that provide moisture to the hair shaft, making it softer. It also strengthens the hair. Try this hair mask to repair dull hair:

- 5 tbsp olive oil
- 2 eggs
- Half a grated cucumber
- 4 tsp mashed papaya
- 1 banana blended
- 2 tsp honey
- Half a mashed avocado

This mask can be mixed well and lathered on the scalp and hair. Cover with a shower cap for 40 minutes and shampoo off with a mild shampoo. Not only will this mask add lustre and bounce to your hair, but it will also make it softer and more manageable.

Until next time!

Redefining Scrubs

Set to open a store in Bengaluru next month, this brand offers medical workwear that is comfortable, function and professional

RESHMI CHAKRAVORTY

WHEN the world grappled with the unprecedented challenges of the Covid-19 pandemic, one issue stood out: healthcare professionals were forced to spend gruelling shifts in ill-fitting uniforms that offered little support through the demands of their jobs. It was then, that Knya was born, driven by a mission, to revolutionise medical apparel by blending comfort, functionality, and sustainability, without compromising style. The brand's co-founders, Vanshika Kaji and Abhijeet Kaji, who plan to open a store in Bengaluru next month, share their story.

Excerpts

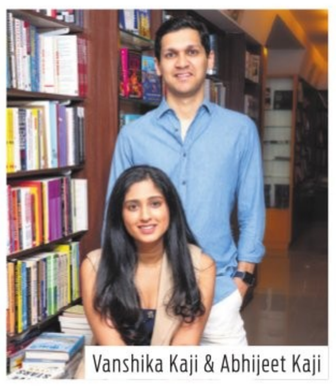
What inspired you to start a medical apparel brand?

During the pandemic, we saw firsthand how doctors and healthcare workers spent exhausting hours in uncomfortable, low quality uniforms, not designed with much research. Unlike fashion or athleisure, medical workwear had been overlooked for decades. We wanted to change that by creating apparel that combines comfort, function and style, while also being sustainable. What began as an attempt to solve a problem grew into a mission to empower healthcare professionals.

Every hospital or medical facility has its own uniform. Where does your brand come in?

While hospitals do maintain a uniform code, many healthcare workers buy their own scrubs because they want something that supports them better.

Accessibility was important to us. That's why we place our stores close to hospitals. At the same time, our e-commerce presence ensures that doctors and nurses can access our products conveniently, whether they are in cities or small towns.



Vanshika Kaji & Abhijeet Kaji

Medical professionals have specific needs in clothing – comfort, durability, and hygiene. How did you integrate this in your designs?

When we began designing, we spent a lot of time listening to doctors, nurses, and medical students about what truly mattered to them. Comfort was always the first thing they mentioned, as they are constantly on their feet. We focused on lightweight fabrics that feel featherlike, and engineered cuts that allow easy movement without compromising a professional look. Small details like extra deep pockets made a huge difference.

Durability and hygiene were just as important. Medical uniforms go through multiple washes every week, so we use blends that remain fresh and hold their structure. We also added easy-care, antimicrobial finishes to keep professionals safe in high-contact environments. Our fabrics are lab-tested, offer four-way stretch for a full range of motion, and are built to last.

Sustainability is at the heart of everything. Our EcoFlex material, for example, is crafted from certified recycled PET bottles, including ocean waste.

Future plans?

We are expanding into medical equipment, starting with the launch of our 6sense Stethoscope, and building a stronger retail presence to ensure seamless access. The future lies in becoming a trusted, 360-degree brand.

NIDRADEVI NEXT DOOR WILL FEEL LIKE A WARM HUG

Praveer Shetty and Rishika Naik talk about their upcoming film, where they discuss sleeplessness, love, and healing, as they share their experience of working with director Suraag Sagar

A SHARADHAA

With its striking title and emotionally rich themes, Nidradevi Next Door is not your average dark comedy-drama. Centred around sleeplessness, trauma bonding, and the long road to healing, Nidradevi Next Door has all the trappings of a poignant story featuring a mix of genres.

The film stars debutant Praveer Shetty and rising star Rishika Naik — to talk about their experiences, the complexity of their characters, and why this film left them sleepless too.

Directed by Suraag Sagar, the film explores the quiet chaos of insomnia through the lens of urban loneliness and unspoken emotional trauma. "Sleeplessness is a shared language — one that speaks of longing, healing, and hope," say the leads in conversation with CE, ahead of the film's release. Produced by Jayaram Devasamudra under Suram Movies and distributed by Ravi Films, the film features Sudharani, Srivatsa, Karthik Pattar, and Anurag Patil. The cinematography is by Ajay Kulkarni, while the music is by Nakul Abhyankar.

"As actors, once the work is done, we are satisfied," laughs Praveer, and adds, "But the sleeplessness kicks in when it comes to promotions."

Praveer plays a 28-year-old cricketer haunted by personal trauma. It's a role steeped in silence and stillness — a far cry from loud, performative drama. "Silence too is a language in its own right," he reflects. "Honestly, it's harder than dialogue delivery. You can't fake it. Director Suraag was clear — we had to rehearse a lot. Rishika and I built detailed backstories with him, which helped anchor our emotional arcs before shooting even began."

Praveer Shetty and Rishika Naik

Rishika, coming off the success of Juni, found the pre-production process equally transformative. "Chemistry was non-negotiable," she says. "There was the first version of our scenes, and then there was the version after the workshops. It changed everything. The improvisation helped us trust our instincts, and that gave our characters emotional depth."

Despite its themes of insomnia and emotional baggage, the film deftly avoids melodrama. Instead, it balances levity and heartbreak — and does so with striking humanity. "When you're in love, you don't sleep," says Praveer. "You're either on the phone or lying there thinking. That restless energy — it's in every frame."

For Rishika, Nidradevi.. is as much about healing as it is about love. "Healing is something everyone needs — not just the broken people," she shares. "Even the good ones. We often think love is enough, but love without healing can be toxic. This film shows that healing itself is an act of love."

Her preparation was immersive. "I read the script over and over, like I was meeting her for the first time each time. I needed to know her like a friend — how she thinks, how she moves, what her silences mean."

And yes, the film even has a dance number — a quirky "sleepless anthem" that adds a playful contrast to the emotional weight. "I love dancing," says Praveer. "Our producer, Jayaram Devasamudra, wanted it to be commercial but also meaningful. It's a beautiful contrast."

Asked whether their characters are in love or simply empathetic, Rishika pauses before replying. She says, "Empathy can feel like love. Understanding someone so deeply blurs the line. That's what this film explores — not just romantic love, but human connection in its rawest form."

Both Praveer Shetty and Rishika Naik conclude, "Nidradevi Next Door is a film that gives you a warm hug. There is love. There is warmth. And there's empathy."

S/O Muthanna mirrors my own life: Pranam Devaraj

Pranam Devaraj, who is making a comeback after seven years, joins Kushee Ravi to discuss S/o Muthanna, sharing screen space with Rangayana Raghu, and more

A SHARADHAA

Seven years after his debut film Kumari 21F, Pranam Devaraj returns to the screen with S/o Muthanna—a film he calls, without any hesitation, his "relaunch." But there's no air of pretense here. He speaks with honesty, reverence, and a deep sense of responsibility. Directed by Srikanth Hunsur and produced by Puratana Films in association with SRK Films, S/o Muthanna is a deeply personal father-son drama. The film pairs Pranam opposite Kushee Ravi, with the ever-reliable Rangayana Raghu playing a pivotal role. This time around, Pranam says his goal was singular: to make his father proud.

"This film is close to my heart," Pranam begins, visibly emotional. "S/o Muthanna mirrors my own life. My equation with Rangayana Raghu on screen is exactly how I am with my father (Devaraj) off-screen. Raghu sir wasn't just a co-actor—he was a father figure on set, always guiding us through dialogue modulation, always present," reveals Pranam, along with Kushee, in this conversation with CE, ahead of the film's release on September 12.

"I wanted Appa (Devaraj) to see growth in me. I've learned from my first film—the mistakes I made then, I made sure not to repeat. This one's a dedication to him."

Coming from the illustrious Devaraj family—his father a veteran actor, and his brother, Prajwal Devaraj, an established star—Pranam knows that expectations are high. But he doesn't see that as a burden.

"It's a responsibility," he states firmly. "Convincing the audience is everything. You can't cheat them, no matter the film's outcome. Be honest in your performance—that's our job."

Unsurprisingly, cinema is a constant topic of discussion in the Devaraj household.

"Prajwal and I discuss our scenes, record, analyse—it's a constant exchange. Watching Appa, especially in roles like Huliya, has shaped my approach. His eyes do the talking." He smiles while responding on three Devarajs sharing screen space, "Yes, we're actively working on a script. The rapport is real, and we want it to translate on screen."

While S/o Muthanna is centred around fathers and sons, Kushee Ravi brings an emotional axis to the story—balancing tradition and modernity through her character.

"My character—a doctor—is rooted, practical. She doesn't get sidelined, and that's what drew me in," Kushee shares. "Often in family dramas, women become ornamental. Here, I'm integral. The real drama begins with my entry, and I loved that," she adds, as she continues with conviction, "In real life, women balance everything—relationships, work, family. It felt refreshing to portray that on screen with honesty." When asked what truth about herself she uncovered through the role, she pauses thoughtfully. "That I could adapt. As actors, we should be like water—fluid, moldable. This role made me realize the strength in simplicity." S/o Muthanna may tread familiar emotional ground, but it promises a fresh perspective—one anchored in sincerity rather than spectacle."It's tight performances," Pranam concludes, "and a tribute to familial love that doesn't try to dazzle—but simply connects."

'THERE ARE TWO SIDES TO THIS STORY'

Team Kamal Sridevi

CE FEATURES

The trailer for Kamal Sridevi has sparked conversation and curiosity, thanks to its intense, suspense-filled atmosphere and layered character portrayals. If the early buzz is anything to go by, lead actress Sangeetha Bhat may be on her way to winning accolades for the role.

Unveiled recently, the trailer teases a gripping narrative without giving away much. The mood is heavy with intrigue, and the visuals hint at an emotional rollercoaster. Co-producer Rajavardan was full of praise for Sangeetha Bhat's bold performance as a sex worker, calling it "award-worthy."

"Portraying such a character takes guts," Rajavardan said. "Sangeetha's artistic bravery deserves all the accolades. Behind that celebration, there's a lot of pain. She went all in."

Directed by VA Sunil Kumar, along with Sangeetha, Kamal Sridevi stars Sachin Cheluvarayaswamy in a dual narrative structure, exploring the emotional and psychological depths of the titular characters—Kamal and Sridevi. Sachin, who plays the male lead, reflected on the emotional core of the film:

"This isn't about winning or failing," he said. "We made a film with strong content and powerful roles. It's quality cinema—no compromises."

Adding further weight to the ensemble are seasoned actors Kishore, Ramesh Indira, and Mitra,whose presence lends gravitas to the already intense narrative.

Sangeetha Bhat, speaking about her experience, expressed both humility and pride: "There are two sides to this story — Kamal and Sridevi. Both are complex," she shared. "I'm thankful to the team for trusting me with this challenging role."

Produced by Dhanalakshmi's Swarnambika Pictures and Rajavardan's Barn Swallow Company, the film is set to release statewide on September 19.

'Independent vs commercial cinema is an outdated narrative'

SHREYAS PANDE

Coming back almost a decade after his National Award-winning debut film, Thithi, director Raam Reddy feels that his sophomore feature, Jugnuma, is more personal. It tells the story of an orchard owner living with his family in the Himalayas in the 1980s. While recounting a tender, intimate, and nostalgic tale, the film adds a touch of magical realism. A scene in the trailer shows a man with wings jumping off a cliff and flying in the sky. "I wanted to tell a suspenseful, mysterious story with magical elements," says Raam, adding that it bothered him to see magical realism as a thriving genre in just literature. "People sit in a room and write what they want. Whereas in cinema, it is a bit more complicated as you have to convince an ecosystem to believe in a particular dream. I wanted to fight for that dream, and that's why I took this leap," he says.

Due to its experimental nature, Raam wanted to give maximum clarity to his team about the film. So, he worked with animator and storyboard artist Upmanyu Bhattacharya to turn the entire script into a 378-page graphic novel. "We used that as our bible on set. It gave me a lot of clarity on how I want the film to come to life," says Raam. He explains that adding a magical touch to the film involved a lot of technical precision, location scouting, and working with VFX. "The film has over 600 VFX shots, but no one will be able to spot anything. It was meant to create a world of fantasy, but at the same time, you should not feel it as the story is also set in a realistic world," he says. What adds to the magnetic charm in the visuals is also the decision to shoot on 16mm film as opposed to digital. It lends a new texture to the frames, igniting the memory of a different era. Raam describes himself as a 'digital baby', having shot most of his work in the format before. It was still his dream to shoot his movie on celluloid, saying that the entire 'feel' of it is different. "It brings a certain rigour to the process as you are working with something that is physical and there's going to be wastage, so you cannot overshoot," he says. At the same time, it brought its own share of challenges as Raam was not able to look at his monitor after each shot to have a better look at it. "Being a digital baby, I work off the monitor. If someone told me to make my film without looking at the monitor, I would be lost," says Raam. "So, it took some time to get used to the process. It was in a way disarming not to see everything that you are shooting."

For Deepak Dobriyal, who plays a pivotal role in Jugnuma, acting for the film camera has its own significance. "I feel respected with just the sound of the camera rolling. It feels as if your heart has started beating when the camera rolls. It is that powerful," Deepak says. "You also know that you cannot give multiple takes. In digital, you keep on experimenting, but with the film camera setup, you don't feel like doing that." Tillotama Shome agrees, recounting memories from her debut film, Monsoon Wedding (2001), which was shot on 35mm film. She feels that it changes the atmosphere on set. "There is a sense of indiscipline that comes in digital sometimes, with an actor forgetting lines, and you don't realise that someone is holding the boom mic for twenty minutes," Tillotama says, adding how working with film was a good learning process. "You cannot be casual on set. It is all about teamwork. So, you getting into the 'zone of an actor' and 'not feeling it' is very overrated," she says.

Jugnuma is also not the usual Friday release. Headlined by Manoj Bajpayee, the film operates at a different pace than some of the mainstream films, going for a subdued, subtle exploration of emotions. Deepak feels that there is nothing obvious in the film. that tag. I am just telling a story the best way I can," he says.
